PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee this bright morning for Thy unchanging law and Thy unchanging love, for seedtime and harvest, summer and winter, that never fails; that it matters not how cold and stormy the winter may be, that springtime, with its flowers and blue skies always follows, and that no matter how dark the night may be, the daylight always comes again. And so may it be with everyone of us, that no matter what trials or disappointments we may have, that we may realize that these are all temporary, that weeping may endure for the night, but joy cometh in the morning. Be with us all this morning, bless the Speaker and the members of this House, all who are here helping in the business of this legislative body. Guide us by Thy wisdom and direct us by Thy spirit of justice and forgive us and accept us all, we ask in Thy name. Amen.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1356, entitled:

An Act providing for the patrol maintenance and repair of township dirt roads in townships of the second class

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BAGSHAW. Mr. Speaker, House Bill No. 1356 is a bill that leads toward taking away local control from the supervisors in second class townships, and would take out of the hands of the local authorities the power of the direction of the roads, so far as this measure is concerned. They have now, if they deem necessary, the authority to appoint this patrol, and it should not be made mandatory. In the smaller townships, I feel that it is going to work a hardship financially as it would necessitate the expenditure of money for this particular thing when it might be better expended for some other purpose. Therefore I ask you to vote "no" on this measure.

Mr. METZGER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose back of this bill is to save money for the second class townships. The theory back of it is that "a stitch in time saves nine." By having an employee on the road continuously, that empolyee can fill up the little ruts that frequently appear in the roads in the country districts which are torn away from time to time and become big gutters in case of heavy rain. Now, if one employee will constantly look after that situation the big gutters will not appear in the road and the large amount of work which is frequently needed after a heavy rain will not have to be expended on the road. For instance, if a man is employed on the road at a salary of $100 a month for a period of six months, his salary would only amount to $600 during that time, and I dare say that during that period of six months he will save a great deal more than $600 in actual repair work for that township. Not only that, but take the country districts at this time: The farmers are unable to do their own work on their farms, and they are going to do the work on the farm first before they repair the roads, and the result is that the roads in the country districts are being neglected and I ask you all to vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, might I interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. METZGER. With pleasure.

Mr. RHODES. Would it not be better if this bill be made optional instead of mandatory?

Mr. METZGER. I think not, for this reason: This bill is practically a duplicate of the Act of 1899, which requires the supervisors to do the same thing respecting loose stone on the highways. That act seems to have worked very well, and that is the reason this bill was drawn similar to the Act of 1899 with respect to such loose stone.

Mr. RHODES. Would it not also be better to make the pay on the per diem basis instead of on the monthly basis?

Mr. METZGER. I think not. The purpose of this bill is to have a man employed who will work continuously on the roads, and it does not appear to make any difference whether he would be paid by the day of month. The purpose is to have a man who is fully responsible with respect to this line of work.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill has some merit, but in my opinion it should not be made mandatory upon the supervisors to hire one or more overseers. It seems to me the discretion should be permitted to remain in the supervisors as to whether or not it is necessary in their instances to make this operate as set forth in this bill, particularly with reference to patrolmen. Some of the townships may not have to go to this expense, and therefore it should not be made mandatory upon every township to do this. It should be up to the supervisors to determine whether or not there is this necessity. If the necessity exists, then it should be done; but as the bill now reads, in my opinion, it imposes an unnecessary and unwarranted cost upon some of the townships, especially those which are small, and which this bill should not apply to, and therefore I say in its present form it should be defeated.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. BAGSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified, and was as follows:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1482, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by adding thereto section sixteen

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. H. A. LITTLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the only thing that will save Pittsburgh is to make possible an increase in its borrowing power to 10 per cent.

The bonding power of Philadelphia was increased to that point many years ago. Why should not we have an equal chance with Philadelphia?

At the present time the City of Pittsburgh cannot even make the necessary street repairs, because it does not have the borrowing power.

One of the most essential and vital things for a modern city to do, if its position is to be maintained and its future assured, is to enlarge its financial resources.

Mr. Speaker, I have here a verification of the unanimous indorsements of our City Council and Mayor.

I ask the members of this House to vote for this bill and give us the bonding power to do the things that future generations need.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of this bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STADTLANDER.. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr RHODES. Will the gentleman from Allegheny state the purpose of Section 9 of this bill?

Mr. STADTLANDER. The purpose is that the words "grant and convey" in any deed means to grant and convey all that the man has in that particular piece of real estate. If a lesser estate is desired to be set forth, it must so contain a paragraph to the lesser estate as intended.

Mr. RHODES. I do not think that quite answers my question. I am speaking of Section 9, where it pertains to the elimination of the personal seal upon any written instrument.

Mr. STADTLANDER. A number of deeds have been recorded in Pennsylvania, brought in from other states, where they are not familiar with our laws, that omit the word "seal," and the recorder is not required to refuse such recording of deeds, and the purpose is that the seal is not necessary in conveying any real estate. However, under the Act, it is optional. You can still insert the word "seal".

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE
(SPECIAL ORDER.)

The SPEAKER. The hour of 11:30 having arrived, the special order of business fixed for that hour will now be taken up, it being House Bill No. 1108, (Senate Bill No. 470), file folio 3441, on page 54 of today's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1108, (Senate Bill No. 470), as follows:

An Act authorizing counties boroughs incorporated towns townships and school districts to make contracts of insurance with mutual fire insurance companies duly authorized to transact business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That any county city borough incorporated town township school district or poor district may make contracts of insurance with any mutual fire insurance company duly authorized by law to transact business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on any building or property owned by such county city borough incorporated town township school district or poor district

Section 2 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, Senate Bill No. 470, which you are about to vote on, is a mutual insurance bill which I had put on the postponed calendar some time ago by reason of the language being too broad. That has now been amended ,however, so that it restricts the mutual insurance companies to such mutual insurance companies that are duly authorized to do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and it seems to me that that restricts them to a proper scale.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, a brief word of explanation is perhaps due the members on this bill. This bill refers to the continuance of the one cent emergency gasoline tax for another period of two years. The revenue from that source is calculated to be something like $9,500,000.00 for the biennium. I understand that there has been a little propaganda against this bill under the perhaps mistaken idea that the money is to go to the General Fund. In the Ways and Means Committee last night the bill was so amended, as you will note, that the money from this source will now go to the motor fund. If there were a surplus in the motor fund I should be the last to ask that this tax should be continued. There is, however, a clear need for the money. This House has created certain new obligations at this session which will come out of the motor fund. These obligations are state-aid and township reward and omnibus measures amounting to something over $12,000,000.00. I think we all agreed that it is a poor fiscal policy to create obligations and not find revenue to meet them. In support of this position as you are all aware we have the illustrious example of President Coolidge and Mr. Mellon down there at Washington. Now there is more at stake than simply the meeting of obligations which we have created, the bill recently passed carrying $5,000,000.00 for State-aid and $3,000,000.00 for township reward. We have also passed a bill known as the Omnibus Bill which will carry at least $1,000,000.00 to put those roads into shape. Now all that is gone and there will be absolutely not one cent in the next two years for state-aid work, for township reward work, for the proper maintenance of the Omnibus Bill roads without the passage of this gasoline tax. The supervisors and county commissioners in the State have already planned expenditure of money on the construction of township roads and State-aid roads, and without the passage of this bill their efforts are lost. Now, I have suggested with the passage of this bill how much we each have at stake. The bill for State-aid and township reward reaches into every county in the State and is of vital concern to all of us except perhaps the men of Philadelphia. In that connection let me say that steps have been taken to see that the motor bus fees of Philadelphia County and a substantial portion from the bill for state-aid and townships reward shall go to Philadelphia County on the occasion of the sequi-centennial. The Highway Department is favorably inclined toward this proposition and personally I will do whatever I can to see that it is carried out in justice to the County of Philadelphia. Members of the House, this seems to me to be fair and right and I ask you to vote "aye".

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as many of you know, and as I know many of you have heretofore opposed to any new taxes, in 1923 a number of you men and myself promised the people of Pennsylvania that we were only voting an emergency for two years. We promised at that time that we would not renew it. I have up until this time been opposed to renew this one cent tax. This bill, however, as you have heard, has been amended so that all of this tax goes into the motor fund for the maintenance of the highways of this Commonwealth. There can be no better investment than the building of good roads throughout the Commonwealth, and I believe everybody in the Commonwealth will be perfectly satisfied to pay this one cent gasoline tax, when they know that fund is going to be used to better the roads in the Commonwealth. I am going to vote for it for that purpose. If this was going into the general fund I would be absolutely opposed to you, but as it goes into the motor fund I think it is a good bill.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I find myself in complete accord with the gentleman from Delaware who has spoken upon this subject and also the gentleman from Forest. I want to say merely this one word. When we filed the report of the tax commission down to January 1st, thirty-six states had the gasoline tax and two or three have added it since. Of the thirty-six there are eighteen that have the one cent tax. The rate varies from one cent to four cents. In some of the western states there is a very marked tendency to increase the gasoline tax and reduce the motor registration fee on the general ground that this gasoline tax is directly proportionate to the weight of the car, the distance traversed and the speed of the car, which are the three elements that involves wear and tear upon roads. We took testimony throughout the state and we heard no criticism to either the nature or amount of this tax.

On the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I wish to identify this bill for the purpose of showing the members of the House that this is the particular bill about which you have been written by the merchants of your communities and more especially by the reputable jewelers of those communities. It is a bill which was prepared and is being supported by all of the merchants' associations of the State as well as the retail jewelers association. It is aimed at a practice which has grown up in Pennsylvania and is becoming a menace to the people of third-class cities and of smaller places. Probably the first-class cities do not mind the traveling auctioneers because there are so many retail merchants in cities of that size that it does not interfere with their business, but in third class cities or the smaller communities, towns or boroughs, when the traveling auctioneer comes to town he sets up his business for a week or two and certainly does it interfere with the merchants of that community by taking away business which they should have, and for which they have paid their licenses during the yar. Let us look at this as it really stands. A week or two before Christmas, and a good many of you men will recall that this happened in your community, a week or two before Christmas there will come floating into your town an auctioneer with probably a carload full of second-hand goods, poor jewelry or something of that kind, and he will set up a place on one of the busy corners in competition with the merchants who are in the community. He will sell his products, he will sell his materials to the people of that city or of that borough that will buy them. Not until after Christmas will they find that the wares sold to them are of an inferior quality and the it is too late for them to seek redress, because the traveling merchant has flown, he is no longer there and there is no way of bringing action against him. This bill is framed to protect the local merchants and to give a means of securing redress from traveling or so-called "tramp" auctioneer. By the payment of a small license fee of $100 and the depositing of $5,000, which is later returned to the auctioneer that he carry on his business properly, he is given a State license. That permits him for one year to carry on the business of auctioneer. This money is deposited with the Secretary of the Commonwealth and it to be a lien judgment against this traveling auctioneer. For the purpose of clearing this matter to some members who have asked me whether this covers all auctioneers, I wish to carefully show you, on page 5547, section 7, line 5,: "The provisions of this act shall not, however, apply to judicial sales or sales by executors or administrators, nor to sales by or in behalf of licensed pawnbrokers in manner prescribed by law, nor to the sale of farm products, farming implements, live-stock," it does not touch these farm sales at all, "Household goods, real-estate, machinery and equipment nor personal property not in the general line of merchandise nor to sales at public of stock on hand of any person, firm or corporation that shall for the period of one year next preceding such sale have been continuously in business in the Commonwealth." You can see readily, therefore, that the auctioneer who is in business for a year at a set place is not bothered by this bill, nor are any of the auctioneers who carry on legal sales or the sales of household goods. It is aimed only at the man who travels around in these communities and drops bad goods into these communities to the detriment of the merchants there, and I ask you to support this measure.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, without any desire on my part to trespass further on your time, I believe that the explanation of the bill given by the gentleman from Dauphin needs some comment. This is one of the bills that provides for a further centralization. We now have a provision for a State license for auctioneers. At the present time, there is a muncipal ordinace regulating the business auctioneers but this bill provides that a State license shall be issued by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. In order to secure this license regularly, the auctioneer must deposit with the Secretary of the Commonwealth $5,000 in cash or a $15,000 bond before he can go on with his regular business. The purpose of the bill originally was to prevent the "tramp" auctioneer from coming into these towns, selling his goods and moving out. Unfortunately, the bill does not restrict the proposition sufficiently to take care of the man who is in business. Under this bill, a legitimate merchant would have to deposit $5,000 of his capital or a bond in the sum of $15,000, with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and that money would remain with him indefinitely. If you read the bill it says that such deposit shall not be paid by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to the licensee as long as there are outstanding claims against him, unless there is an unreasonable time in enforcing it. Of course, there is no restriction there and there may be claims which would drag out for years, and this merchant's capital would be tied up. The bill has its humorous side, on page 5547, where it says, "And provided further that such sale at public auction of the stock on hand of such merchant or merchants shall not be fed in anticipation of such auction sale." In other words, I suppose this is directed at the bazaars that are given, and you cannot serve any tea, or cake, or ice cream. The bill is entirely too regulatory; it infringes upon legitimate business. There is no reason why a legitimate merchant should have to put up $5,000 out of his capital or collateral security in the amounty of $15,000 to secure a $15,000 bond. For that reason, although the original intention of the bill was good, as the bill now stands it creates a hardship on legitimate auctioneers and my request is that the House vote down this bill.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Mr. Speaker, I just want to add a word to what has been said by the gentleman from Dauphin. As secretary of a business organization in a small town, I know how legitimate business is hard-pressed by the present method of auctioneering particularly when a merchant closes out his business. It is a common practice to bring in goods from some outside town and dispose of them at auction sale. I would ask this house to pass this bill as a protection to the people in legitimate business.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, just one thing further, I would like to say about this bill, if I may be allowed about two minutes. The chiefs of police in their last association considered a bill of this kind as working a cure upon the disposition of stolen goods throughout the State. They claim that the traveling auctioneer in some way or another secures stolen goods, and they are sold, of course, in communities where the goods were not stolen. The chiefs of police, therefore, endorsed a measure of this kind.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

on page 30 of to-day's calendar, be made a special order of business at once.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, there have been a number of bills advanced this morning by making them special orders of business. I notice that a number of you gentlemen have bills here that are of some importance. I have a few myself, and three of them especially are very important, and I do not think it is right that these bills should be taken up out of their order and given a special time ahead of our bills. The time is getting very short now and some of our bills will fall by the wayside if that practice is continued. I have some bills here and from now on I will object to anybody else advancing their bills in this way. I do not think it is fair to the other members. I agreed with Mr. Sterling because his bill was of more importance than any other bill on the calendar. It is not alone for myself that I am objecting now to the advancing of any bills or giving preference to any other bills over the other bills on the calendar.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1027, entitled:

An Act to amend sections seven hundred and two and seven hundred and eighteen of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and fifty-nine) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Somerset permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PHILLIPS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. MARCUS. Has the gentleman from Somerset included the amendments in this bill which he agreed to put in?

Mr. PHILLIPS. There were no amendments made I agreed to.

Mr. MARCUS. Did you make the amendments?

Mr. PHILLIPS. I had none to make. I offered certain amendments to the objectors, but none were made.

Mr. MARCUS. Didn't you agree on page 2 of the bill, in line 19, to substitute in place of 8:00 o'clock, 10:00 o'clock?

Mr. PHILLIPS. I did not. I agreed to substitute 9:00 o'clock, but that met with objections, and there were no amendments made.

Mr. MARCUS. Did you not agree further on line 24 to place the month of February in there instead of January?

Mr. PHILLIPS. I agreed to place the date of February 15th and January 15th, provided that was satisfactory to the objectors, and they would not agree to that, so no amendments were made.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this is a bill which applies to those interested in game and hunting. Various committees have been to see me, and requested me to see the sponsor of the bill and have him make these changes, and the gentleman said that he would recommit the bill back to committee and make the changes. The bill was committed back to the committee, and the changes were not made. I therefore ask the members of this House to vote this bill down.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Upon the request of these gentlemen, I very courteously asked to have this bill referred back to the committee for a hearing. That is a matter of record. That privilege was accorded them, but there was no request for a hearing.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, to the gentleman from Somerset I raised objections to the hour of training dogs from 10:00 o'clock to 8:00, and also explained to him that the majority of members from Allegheny county came from populous districts and by the time the men come home from their work and from their office duties, it is usually about half past six, and by the time they have dinner and get ready for a hike with their dogs, it is usually between 7:00 and 8:00 o'clock before they get started. In the summer time we have daylight until almost half past nine, but this does not give them the opportunity to get out, and I took the matter up with the sponsor of this bill, and he said he would strike a happy medium and would make it 9:00 o'clock. Today you have the bill in its original form. That does not meet with the conditions and the desires of the people from the cities. It is all right with the country gentlemen, because they can take a jaunt any time, but the opportunity for the men working in offices and other places to take this recreation was denied them. We have a number of hunting clubs in our towns who go out on these jaunts three or four evenings a week, and they are denied this pleasure.

The further question arose as to the time of closing the season. The sponsor of the bill agreed, I believe, on the 15th of February. The bill is now in its original state, it has not been amended. I am not charging the man with bad faith, but yet at the same time, I believe that he should comply with our requests and possibly there would not have been any objection to this bill. The purpose of cutting down the time is to prevent the hunting of rabbits. The question arose as to when the rabbits have their young. They do not propagate until March or April. There are no young rabbits in February, and if there are any born in that time, they die of exposure, so that this argument in favor of cutting down the season does not hold good with the House. I ask the members of this House to give consideration to the requests of the residents of our districts, who demand that we have a time of 10:00 o'clock fixed for the training of their dogs. I therefore respectfully ask that you vote down this bill.

Mr. PHILLIPS. I would like to correct the gentleman from Allegheny on these particular points; I agreed to go along on the amendments which would change the hour to 9:00 o'clock and the date to January 15th, but those who are now objecting at that time refused to consider any amendments. Then I agreed to have this bill placed back into committee for a hearing, which was done. There was no hearing held, because there was no request for a hearing at that time. I offered to make any amendments excepting the ones I offered to make to these objections, who refused then to consider them.

And so far as the sportsmen of the State of Pennsylvania are concerned, I have in my hand a letter addressed to me from one whom I consider one of the finest and foremost sportsmen in Pennsylvania, Mr. John M. Phillips, who was recently deposed by the present Governor from the Game Commission. All these gentlemen thoroughly support this bill, and at a conference in the Penn-Harris hotel recently, March 17th, to be exact, held by a number of sportsmen, this bill was agreed to by them. I could talk to you at great length and detail in support of this bill, but rather than take up your time in speaking on this particular subject, I will refrain and the only thing I ask the members is, to give this bill the consideration it deserves, because it tends to do no damage to the sportsmen of Pennsylvania, and has no bad effects on the hunting of rabbits, but it does act against the interests which would be detrimental to the sportsmen; and so I ask you to support this bill as being absolutely a bill for the benefit of the sportsmen of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have been asked to say a few words by the gentlemen from Allegheny who are particularly interested in this bill. This is an amendment to the School Act of 1921, which fixes the salaries of teachers in high schools in districts of the first class—that is, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. There was this provision: "Provided, that subject to regulations prescribed by the State Board of Education and such additional regulations as the local board of education may prescribe, the maximum salaries for high school teachers shall be advanced to at least thirty-six hundred dollars." That led to confusion resulting from the fact that the State Board of Education did not understand the local conditions, and there were classifications adopted for teachers which became exceedingly unpopular in our city and have really been responsible for destroying a certain amount of morale. As a result, our board of education requested an amendment, striking out that proviso, and that is what this bill does. After the bill was introduced, however, in Allegheny they suggested a qualification upon the proviso to retain the original power of the local board. I left the bill on the second reading calendar for six days, in the hope that Allegheny and Philadelphia, through their local boards, would get together and agree on the phraseology. They have not been able to do that, but I am told that Mr. Marcus Aaron, a leader in the Pittsburgh school board, is today in Philadelphia conferring with the officers of our board. I therefore ask the members of the House to pass the bill in this form, and it is my strong hope that they will work out a form of agreement which will be satisfactory to all sides. It is one of the things in which the two cities ought to agree. We are under the same law, and have the same problems, and I think with a little statesmanlike discussion of the subject, a perfect agreement will be made.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1494, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Article fifteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by adding thereto section four

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading,

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Northampton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HORN. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Is it correct that the purpose of this amendment to the Constitution provides for the assessment of benefits and damages on property not abutting on the improvement?

Mr. HORN. Yes, sir, if finally voted upon by the people and acted on by the General Assembly later.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is the proposed amendment to the Constitution?

Mr. HORN. To permit the Assembly to pass appropriate legislation.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In other words, a street may be opened through lands and not only the property abutting on that land be assessed, but the property some squares away from it might be assessed also?

Mr. HORN. In certain proportions, yes, sir. At the same time it is similar to the provisions made for Allegheny county. It is to cover other municipalities, this and the companion bill next to it.

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative, and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1495, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Article fifteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by adding thereto section five

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Northampton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HORN. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Will the gentleman explain the purpose of this joint resolution?

Mr. HORN. It means that if this Legislature passes this resolution and submits it to a vote and it is ratified by the vote of the people, the Assembly may pass an Act which will enable a second improvement for street paving to be assessed on the property, but not within a period of twenty-five years of each other.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I desire to interrogate the gentleman further.

The SPEAKER. Proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In other words, at the present time, the policy of the law has been that after the property holder has made the original improvement, that the municipality thereafter keeps up this improvement for him?

Mr. HORN. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And this would change that so that the property owner might have to make, in a period of time, a number of improvements, notwithstanding he has made the original improvement.

Mr. HORN. Yes, sir. Mr. Speaker, might I say that the point to be covered is this, that twenty to twenty-five years ago, when municipalities paved streets with macadam pavement, it was considered a permanent improvement. Today, and within a few years of that time, conditions were such that it was not a real permanent improvement, and the consequence is that the municipality from time to time must renew the highways at the expense of the municipalities; and this would give an opportunity, if adopted and approved by the people, for the Assembly, under certain conditions, to pass legislative Acts covering the subject.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. STERLING. Does the gentleman from Berks know that this House and the Senate have both passed a bill for the appointment of a commission to study the question of parole, and that bill is now in the hands of the Governor?

Mr. SARIG. I know it passed the House. I do not have the information that it went through the Senate.

Mr. STERLING. With that information before the gentleman from Berks, does he feel that this bill is necessary?

Mr. SARIG. I feel that this bill could be tried out, because the question of parole may come up anyhow two years from now, and this could be given a trial first. This is not an expensive form of trying it out.

Mr. STERLING. Am I properly advised that there was an agreement that this bill was not to come before the House for its consideration inasmuch as the parole commission bill was advanced, that there was an agreement that the bill remain in committee?

Mr. SARIG. There was no agreement that I know of.

Mr. STERLING. Was there an agreement that this bill should be recommitted after second reading?

Mr. SARIG. Not that I know of.

Mr. STERLING. Is the gentleman from Berks willing now to have the bill recommitted in view of the fact that there is now in the hands of the Governor a measure that will fully cover the situation?

Mr. SARIG. I would like to have the bill considered now as it is. If the House feels that it does not want the bill, it is up to the House.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I hope that this bill will not pass, for one reason, that the bill provides that no person suffering from the narcotic drug habit could be put on parole. Judge Monahan of Philadelphia has been the champion against the narcotic drug habit, and the policy in Philadelphia has been to put them on parole and keep them on parole or probation so as to bring them back and keep them under the control of the court. Our great system, as he has built it up, would be entirely destroyed by this bill; and I ask you to vote "no" and save that system.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, this bill is known as the county parole bill. It is generally conceded among our judges and the members of the Parole Reform Society that some form of machinery should be provided as the judges at the present time cannot give the time and attention to this matter of paroling prisoners which it deserves. Now, I understand there is a division of opinion, however, as to what plans should be followed. The one plan which was introduced here early in the session provided for a State board of five members at $10,000 a year, and, of course, a lot of State machinery that went with it. Now, this plan provides that this matter shall be left in the hands of the counties, the matter of parole, and shall not be centralized here as a State function. This bill simply provides a board of three members to be appointed by the court and to serve without pay. This board may appoint a parole officer at a salary not higher than $2,400 a year. There is a further provision in this bill which makes it self-supporting or at least it is intended to make it self-supporting, and that is, after a prisoner has been paroled, the court may require him to pay back a small amount of his earnings according to his condition; of course, if the prisoner has a large family, the court would not impose upon him any such obligation; but they may up to $10.00 a month, two, three or five dollars, up to ten dollars a month or more. The court may require that a small amount to be paid back into the county treasury, and this will provide the funds by which the machinery operates. In other words, it would impose no additional burden upon the taxpayers, but it would at the same time provide the machinery and leave it with the local counties and the local courts, where I believe it should be, we think, and our judge is particularly in favor of this bill, and so is our district attorney, and he has a number of letters from district attorneys all over the State who say that they believe that the county plan is preferable to the State plan; and we believe, in view of the fact that this bill providing for a State commission has already passed the House and Senate, still I believe that it would be a good idea, because it is inexpensive, to give this a try-out and then two years from now when that commission reports back to this Legislature, they would have something definite to work upon. I ask you, therefore, to vote for this bill.

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1489, entitled:

An Act providing for the payment of traveling expenses to sheriffs and their deputies in counties of the fourth class

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MARSHALL. Will the gentleman from Delaware, tell us what the salary of the sheriff is at the present time in fourth class counties.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Six thousand dollars.

Mr. MARSHALL. That is made a stipulated salary, provided the fees amount to that much.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Absolutely.

Mr. MARSHALL. This bill as I understand it authorizes the sheriff to utilize that $6,000.00 for traveling expenses, does it not?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Well I don't just get what you mean by that. He utilizes the $6,000 whether he travels or not.

Mr. MARSHALL. It provides that he shall get all of his travelling expenses and it says that shall not exceed the amount of the fees.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The amount of the total fees taken in.

Mr. MARSHALL. Suppose the travelling expenses equal the amount of fees and the fees are $6,000.00 even, the laws says that he shall not receive his salary unless there are sufficient fees paid in. If he utilizes all of the fees in expenses where is he going to get his salary?

Mr. ALEXANDER. He don't get it. He don't get anything except what the offices pays, even the payment of his deputies. He must earn it in fees before he can get his deputies paid.

Mr. MARSHALL. Even the deputies or his own salary or his expenses.

Mr. ALEXANDER. His own salary, his deputies and expenses must be taken in in fees before he gets it, if not they are proportioned each month as he earns it.

Mr. MARSHALL. Does he get anything at the present time for expenses.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Nothing whatever.

Mr. MARSHALL. Don't you think it is pretty liberal treatment to let him utilize all of his fees in expenses?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I don't think so. In order to explain, there is evidently some confusion in the mind of the gentleman. We have this condition in Delaware County, and I have no doubt other fourth class counties have the same. I find that most of the fourth class counties are doing just exactly what this bill provides at the present time and up until this last year Delaware County did just what this bill provides, but during the last year the Solicitor of Delaware County has advised that under the existing law the sheriff was not entitled to receive his travelling expenses. For instance I will show you: He has to take a trip with prisoners from Media to Huntingdon. He has to take a man with him and that is if he only has one boy. Sometimes he has four or five boys and he has a number of others. It takes him at least two days to make that trip. The solicitor has advised the county commissioners in Delaware County that under the present act of Assembly he cannot collect his expenses. The facts are that if he has to pay his expenses out of his $6,000 he won't have anything left out of the fees, and notwithstanding, mind you, all of those fees are collected and paid into the county treasurer. In other words if he serves a writ and he has to travel to the upper end of the county he collects so much money from the litigant for travelling expenses, besides other fees, so much for serving the writ, so much for this and that, and so forth, so much for traveling expenses, and he pays that into the county treasurer. He pays his traveling expenses out of his own pocket. That is not the fair thing to do, and that is what the act of Assembly is remedying. The solicitor of the county also advised that he didn't thinuk that was fair and he has asked to have this bill presented so as to clarify the law as it it and as it is administered in counties of the fourth class at the present time.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1491, entitled:

An Act to further amend section twenty-one of an act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred three) entitled "An act relating to the form execution revocation and interpretation of wills to nuncupative wills to the appointment of testamentary guardians to spendthrift trusts to forefeiture of devise or legacy in case of murder of testator to elections to take under or against wills and to the recording and registering of such elections and of decrees relative thereto and the fees therefor" by preventing the disinheriting of natural children under the age of sixteen years

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STERLING. Will the gentleman from Delaware County explain the purpose of this bill?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose of this bill which is now under consideration is practically along the same line as the law is at the present time, which prohibits a spouse from disinheriting the other spouse. In other words, this prohibits a parent from disinheriting a child under the age of sixteen years. I have in my mind at the present time one case which a number of you remember, and that is what is known as the Rosier case in the city of Philadelphia. There you remember the husband was killed by the wife, but before he died he made a will and left everything to a brother, and disinherited a child who had nothing to do with his murder, and yet he disinherited that child. Now, if the husband was living that husband would be compelled to support that child up to sixteen years of age. There is no reason, therefore, in my mind why that husband or that spouse should not be compelled to leave to that child the same as the child would receive if the parent died intestate. Now, this provides however, if you will notice, there is a provision in here providing that where the mother for instance of the child who is also the wife and the husband lives with the wife, in that event the husband can leave all of his estate either in trust or otherwise to his wife, and therefore, that proviso takes care of that situation. Now, that is the purpose of this bill in order to prevent, as I say, a parent from disinheriting a child under the age of sixteen years.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Yes sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILSON. Do you think it is good policy for the state of Pennsylvania, to cover some little case that you have in Philadelphia where a man has separated from his wife, to change the whole law of Pennsylvania and take away from testators the right to leave their property as they see fit?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I think it is the same policy that restrains one spouse from disinheriting another, and that is just as good when it comes to the child, he should not be permitted to disinherit a child whom he would have had to support if he was living. The law as it is on the statute books prohibits one spouse from disinheriting another and the same reason exists as far as the child is concerned. That child is brought into this world without any fault of his and the parent who brings him in should be obliged to support that child up to sixteen years of age whether dead or alive.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Alexander, is it not true that your bill changes the fundamental law of Pennsylvania in that it takes away the right of the parent to disinherit any child under the age of sixteen years.

Mr. ALEXANDER. To that extent, yes.

Mr. WILSON. The purpose of your bill is not to compel a parent to support a child until it is sixteen years of age, but it takes away the parents' right entirely to leave that money where they see fit, as long as they have a child under sixteen years of age. It does not compel the parent to support the child until sixteen years, but compels them to leave that money absolutely to that child if they so happen to have a child under sixteen years of age.

Mr. ALEXANDER. To take care of child as if he died intestate.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

The SPEAKER. Inasmuch as the sponsor of House Bill No. 1591 is now in the room, we will go back to this bill on page 23 of tonight's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1591, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and one) entitled "An act for the assignment of judges to districts other than their own for the purpose of expediting business with provision for their compensation" limiting the power of judges assigned to civil business

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. SPEAKER and members of the House, I just desired to interrogate the gentleman who is sponsor of this bill, and I waited for him to come in from dinner, but he informs me that he does not want to be interrogated; it is not his bill, and he does not want to have anything to do with it; so, therefore, we won't interrogate him. I did not ask him whose bill it is, because I did not want to place him in any embarrassing position. Evidently, when a man does not want to father a bill, it is not a very good bill. This is therefore a child without a father, it is an orphan.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. SPEAKER, I adopt the orphan.

Mr. ALEXANDER. As the gentleman from Philadelphia has adopted the orphan, I will tell you further that he told me it was a Philadelphia bill, and practically the purpose is, as I understand, to stop tramp judges from coming in from different districts. Delaware county has a number of the so-called tramp judges, and we have had very good results. I never had any trouble myself getting along with the tramp judges. There was just one fellow was a little bit sore about something and gave me a raw deal, but you get that even with the Philadelphia judges. I have had more trouble with the Philadelphia judges than I have had with the tramp judges. However, it is absolutely impossible for many of the country districts to get along with their work. In this time after the Volstead Act has gone into effect and that the crime has increased as we were told in 1919 it would decrease in crime, we are unable to get along in our country districts unless we have these extra judges come in; and these judges are needed more in the criminal cases than they are in the civil cases. Now, why then should they preclude the calling in of judges for criminal cases? My friend from Philadelphia wants me to interrogate him. He is not a lawyer, and I know he don't know anything about the matter, so I am not going to embarrass him by asking him, but I will ask you gentlemen the question. because you gentlemen know as much about this subject as he does, and therefore I am going to ask you to vote against this bill.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. SPEAKER and members of the House, the gentleman from Delaware said I do not know anything about this bill. I want to inform the members of the House that I know more about this bill than he does. They may have some tramps in Delaware county, but we have none in Philadelphia, and we do not want any, and that is the reason we want this bill, to keep out the tramp judges, because we feel our judges have enough work to do as it is.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. SPEAKER and members of the House, My friend from Delaware thinks that because these judges are called tramp judges, that this bill is therefore a joke. Now, the bill is not a joke. The bill is a serious matter, and it is a matter that affects you and affects every one of us. I have heard my friend from Delaware argue for home rule; I have heard my friend from Delaware say that those people in their own counties knew best what to do with their own county affairs. Now, this bill simply provides that judges from the country visiting Philadelphia shall come dawn there and try civil cases. They no not want to come down to try civil cases. They only want to come down there and try the easy cases, the criminal cases and the little light charges. If they want to come to Philadelphia at twenty dollars a day and expenses and live in the Bellevue Stratford, let them come down there and help out on our civil cases. We are now back in some courts three years with civil lists, but you won't find one out of twenty of the country judges coming down to do real work, and this bill says to them, "If you want to come to Philadelphia, and if you want to enjoy a good time in Philadelphia, and want to live at the Bellevue Stratford at the expense of the State, come down there on our civil work and help our litigants that are back three years with their cases." Let them come in and do that, and then they will be rendering a real and good and substantial service to the State.

Mr. LUDLOW. May I inquire of any of the Philadelphia members whether the bill as it now reads is limited solely to Philadelphia? Possibly if it were, we could agree with them to let them do as they wished with it. As I read the bill, it applies to every county in the State, and it would have prevented in the K. K. K. trial in Cambria county a year ago, the calling in of Judge Finletter from Philadelphia by the Supreme Court to Cambria county county. There is where a Philadelphia judge served with distinction in another county. This bill would have prevented that. If you want to limit it to Philadelphia, let us know; but as it stands, it is bad.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. SPEAKER, in regard to this bill, my friend, Mr. LUDLOW, speaks about the Ku Klux Klan, and the House is full of them. We do not have to go to Cambria county or anywhere else. And I will say in regard to this bill, we have a judge now serving in Philadelphia by the name of Heddinger, who is president judge up in Butler or somewhere, and he does not know anything about Philadelphia. He comes down there because he gets twenty dollars a day for it, and he does not get his hair cut until he comes to Philadelphia and gets a first-class barber. I am opposed to this bill in three different ways. K.K.K.

Mr. BREWSTER. I don't like the suggestion of my friend, Mr. SOWERS, of Philadelphia, that all our country judges want to go down there for is to try a criminal case. I think he wants to suggest that the country judges may be afraid to try their civil cases. I just want to suggest to him that if they want to get their cases tried without reversal, just send up for some of the country judges and get some of these judges there, and I do not care whether for criminal or civil cases, they can just try them as well as any judge in Philadelphia.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have the utmost confidence in the country judges, and I agree with my friend, Mr. Brewster, that they can try civil cases as good as the Philadelphia judges, and some of them better than some Philadelphia judges. Now, pass this bill and give them a chance to come down there and try them.

Mr. McKIM. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I don't see why any member of the House should object to any of the so-called tramp judges or visiting judges coming into the various counties where it is necessary to have them brought; but I do not see any reason why they should limit them to the trial of civil cases. We in Allegheny county have the visiting judges the year around, but they are confined exclusively to criminal cases, and if this bill passes, it would very much interfere with our system of trying criminal and civil cases. I do not think it is a good bill, and we do not think it ought to pass.

Mr. WILLIAMS. The discussion to me has been very, very interesting, but there is one feature that has not been brought out, and that is, under what authority are these tramp judges called to Philadelphia, who calls them, and what are they called for, and who are they called by?

Mr. ALEXANDER. The way we do, there is a nnumber of country districts where the judges do not have as much work as some of the larger districts like Philadelphia and Delaware counties and some others, like Perry and Juniata, for instance, and other districts where they no not have as much work to do and in weeks that they are not working, the judges of the courts of common pleas of Delaware county request the Supreme Court justices to send them a judge to assist them. Now this, in other words, saves considerable money to the State; in other words, if not for that arrangement, Delaware county would have to have at least one more judge if not two to try our cases. By doing this, you get them down there for twenty dollars a day and we save on the salary of each judge, four to five thousand dollars a year. That is not only in Delaware county, but all over the State. We use judges in that way, so that they all are kept busy all over the State at different times with this system; and in reference to these judges being named by some people as tramp judges, it is because they do go from one district to another.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Exactly. In other words, the tramp judges would not go to Philadelphia unless the judges in Philadelphia asked the Supreme Court judges to send them there so there is nobody to blame but the people in Philadelphia themselves.

Mr. LAFFERTY. Just a matter of correcting my friend from Tioga, Mr. Williams: The judges are sent for by the president judge of the courts of Philadelphia, not by the Supreme Court.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. It seems to me from what I have listened to that the judges are not so much interested in this as some of the attorneys. Mr. Sowers, is it not a fact that the country judge tries the criminal cases in Philadelphia to well to suit the attorneys?

Mr. SOWERS. My friend seems to think that the judge tries a case. Of course, I excuse the layman for that expression. He is wrong. The jury tries the case and the jury renders the verdict, not the judge. Now, in answer to my friend from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, he would have you believe—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentlemen will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the gentleman from Philadelphia is speaking three times on the same question.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I am only answering the questions.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. I do not profess to be an attorney, but is it not a fact, Mr. Sowers, that the judge charges the jury and also gives the sentence?

Mr. SOWERS. The judge charges the jury, and the court sentences the prisoner and the tramp judge goes back home like he goes from your county, and whenever a petition for parole comes in, or whenever there is any question for a re-hearing or anything of that kind, the tramp judge is safely under cover, and the defendant can languish in your prison until you hunt for him over the Commonwealth.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of this House, we have heard so much about this bill now from various attorneys and so on. I think it is time to hear something from a layman. If the House will be in order, I will speak.

Mr. Speaker and members of this House, this is a very serious proposition, and I think you all ought to consider well a bill of this kind. I want to say to you as a layman that in the city of Philadelphia, we are all most vitally interested in a bill of this kind for this reason: We are not afraid of any country judge trying any case in the city of Philadelphia, whether criminal or civil. That is not the point with this bill. The main object is this: For instance, I, myself, have a case pending in the city of Philadelphia in one of the civil courts for the last four years and for at least seven or eight different times the case has been listed and never was reached. Now, I say, that is entirely wrong. Any person that is compelled to have litigation in any court, I should think it is the duty of the State to see that the litigants get at least proper care to have their cases tried in due time. Now, then, I want to go further with this. I have always been compelled to have my witnesses in court, which you all know, those who had litigation, is an enormous expense to any litigant.

As far as our criminal work is concerned in Philadelphia, I am satisfied we are not back with the criminal work; we are nearly up to date; in fact, most of the criminal cases are tried from one month to another; but our civil cases more or less are hanging on the trial list as much as four years back, and I say it is unfair and unjust. Now, you may holler if you want to. Any man that has any good sense will not show his ignorance that way. Under fair conditions, all we ask for is this: Give the citizens of Philadelphia a lift so that cases will be tried promptly and in due time, and that is all we ask, and nothing else. We do not have to ask any favors.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of this bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Conner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CONNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RRODES. Will the gentleman state the reasons for the proposed changes in existing law relative to commissioning notaries public?

Mr. CONNER. There has been complaint for a good many years of men and women being commissioned as notaries public that were not qualified, and the thought is that as everybody else had a board of examiners, they ought to have a board.

Mr. RHODES. Where would these examinations be held under this act?

Mr. CONNER. It was the intention, Mr. Speaker, to hold the examinations here in Harrisburg.

Mr. RHODES. Then it would require the notaries public to come to Harrisburg from all over the State for these examinations?

Mr. CONNER. I presume it would.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman further?

The SPEAKER. Proceed.

Mr. RHODES. Is the only purpose back of this bill to see that we get better qualified individuals as notaries public?

Mr. CONNER. That is the intention, yes. sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Just so that everybody will understand how the notaries are appointed at the present time: In the first place, no notary is appointed unless he or she is recommended by his or her Senator. Now, of course, if a State Senator should recommend a person that is not properly qualified, most likely, that unqualified person would be appointed. But no person is appointed by the Governor as a notary public unless he or she first have the recommendation in writing of the Senator in their district. That is how the appointment is made at the present time.

On the question recurring.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1364, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and forty-four) entitled "An act relating to husband and wife enlarging her capacity to acquire and dispose of property to sue and be sued and to make a last will and enabling them to sue and to testify against each other in certain cases" by authorizing married women to become bail

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of this bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Lafferty, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAFFERTY. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RHODES. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia state what necessity there is for this bill.

Mr. LAFFERTY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I came in direct contact with it, had it brought to my mind. There was a lady who had a forty thousand dollar equity in property in Philadelphia in my neighborhood who attempted to enter bail for her son. That was the beginning of it. With that in view other people came to me and thought, and I thought the bill was a good one, so I presented the bill. It does nothing more than permit women to go bail.

Mr. RHODES. Does not the gentleman from Philadelphia feel that it is opening up a pretty wide door in permitting women to become sureties of this kind?

Mr. LAFFERTY. I don't think so, no. I think they have that right the same as the men.

Mr. RHODES. Isn't it inconsistent with the existing law to make this amendment?

Mr. LAFFERTY. Not being a lawyer I cannot answer that fluently, but it seems to me to be a commonsense proposition. If a man can go bail so can a woman. Both have the right of suffrage, and why not have the rights that go with it.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill permits a married woman to become bail for another, and it would permit recovery I presume against her individual property. It seems to me that it is inconsistent with the protection thrown around married women in allowing this amendment to go through. Under the existing law a woman cannot become a surety or an accommodation endorser, and that is what this virtually means that they can become. It means that you can become surety on a bond and recovery can be had against her property, while on the other hand you don't permit her under the existing law to become an accommodation endorser on a note or any similar instrument. Therefore I feel that this is an inconsistent change in the existing law and should be defeated.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I want to reply to my friend from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, in behalf of my friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Lafferty, who is the author of this bill. The bill is a good bill. This bill says that a married woman may go bail. Now, it is an awfully funny thing in Pennsylvania that as long as a woman remains single she can sign as many bail bonds as she wants, but the minute that she is married she looses her brains, and then when her husband dies she gets them back again. Now, if she is able to go bail while she is single, and if she is able to bail when she buries her husband certainly during the lifetime of her husband she should have the right to go bail for him. A widow can go bail for her son, while wherever you find a son arrested and you find that the wife or mother probably must stand outside of the court house and cry about her boy inside. She could go home and kill her husband and come right down and go bail. Now, that is the condition of the law today. Now, this is really doing nothing more than permitting her to go bail, and if my friend, Mr. Lafferty, practiced law he would know how to evade the law as it exists today. What do you do when the mother owns the house? You simply sent her outside with the father, write a new deed and put it in the name of John Smith. There is my friend, over there, Mr. Rhodes, that tells you that he was district attorney, and so on, and you would throw open the door to a married woman's going bail. Why, the married woman does it now. The lawyer that knows how says, "Just go on outside mother and sign this deed" and the new man comes in and enters bail. Now, why should the woman be put to that expense when she can get the same results by this amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Blair, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLAIR. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Blair are we to understand that with the amendment on page 5 that if a man stops his car within fifteen feet of a fire plug he is subject to the penalty?

Mr. BLAIR. Yes, that is the intention of the bill.

Mr. MARSHALL. Suppose you come to a street corner and the traffice cop flags you at that point you are subject to the penalty?

Mr. BLAIR. The intention of the bill is to prevent the parking of the car within fifteen feet of the water plug.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think the wording of this amendment is very broad for the reason that it reads that "No operator of a motor vehicle shall bring said motor vehicle to a stop" that is one reason, and the other is "or park the same within fifteen feet of any fire plug." I think the parking provision is all right, but I think this is too broad when you say under any circumstances to bring it to a stop. Another objection I see to the bill is that I think it is something that should be regulated by boroughs and townships. I don't think we ought to pass laws regulating traffic in townships and boroughs. For those two reasons I will have to oppose the bill.

Mr. BLAIR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is an attempt to make the distance that automobiles can park from fire plugs uniform all over the State. As the condition now exists a man drives into a borough or a city and he does not know whether there is law as to parking or not. He don't know whether the distance is twelve, fifteen or twenty feet, and on account of the large amount of automobile traffic that is now on the road it seems better to have this a state law. Since this bill has been introduced I understand it has the endorsement of the fire marshalls in all boroughs and cities of the State.

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Blair, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLAIR. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HORN. I would like to ask the gentleman how he reconciles on page 5 the provisions with regard to the disposition of fines and penalties when the bill passed fifteen minutes ago provides for a different disposition of the fines and penalties?

Mr. BLAIR. Well, I could not reconcile it with the bill that passed fifteen minutes ago. The intention of this is to have the fines and penalties paid into the treasury of the borough or municipality where the offense is committed. That law applies to a different matter.

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1522, entitled:

An Act pertaining to corporations organized or doing business within the Commonwealth limiting the operation of their by-laws and providing for the execution of contracts notes mortgages et cetera by such corporations

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, but I believe he is absent.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I think I can explain the bill.

Mr. RHODES. What is the purpose of it?

Mr. ALEXANDER. The idea is just the same as one we had sometime ago that prohibited a defense on the contents of the by-laws unless the third party knew what the contents of the by-laws were. In other words it is where an official of a corporation enters into a contract and holds out that he had the power to contract when the by-laws show that he does not have the power to contract. This bill provides that if the third person to the contract did not know the contents of the by-laws that they could not defend on that account.

Mr. RHODES. I presume the official would have to be operating within the scope of his authority however.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Surely.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to explain the next three bills together. Two of those bills are vacating two pieces of road amounting to three miles in one part of the district and the other puts three miles on in another part. It is a trade of three miles for three miles, and it is at the suggestion of the Commissioners of Delaware County and the Highway Department who have entered into an agreement to trade one part for another, so that this is just a trade of roads.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TALBOT. Will the gentleman explain the purpose of this bill.

Mr. PEELOR. I am not able to explain the purpose of the bill. A few days ago some gentleman came to me and asked me when the last day for presenting bills was. They asked me to present this bill. Since then I have learned that there is serious objection to it because it affects mines and mining and I know so little about that that I don't know enough to set forth the virtues of the bill. I do not want, however, to assume the responsibility myself of taking the bill off the calendar.

Mr. TALBOT. The gentleman will not state whether it is a good or bad bill.

Mr. PEELOR. They said to me that it would cheapen the mining of coal and they said that it was a good bill. I don't know anything more than that about it.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, having had thirty-six years' actual experience in mining, fifteen years as a miner and twenty-one years as a mine foreman, I want to say to the members of this House, that this is a bad bill and that I would ask every man to vote against this bill.

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. STAVITSKI. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. MATHAY. It will amount to $40,000.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. $40,000. in the City of Philadelphia is that correct?

Mr. MATHAY. Yes, sir.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. How much does the City of Philadelphia want from the State from the state gasoline tax?

Mr. MATHAY. None at all.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Is it true that you now have a bill there for $200,000.

Mr. MATHAY. That is included in another bill.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. In another bill?

Mr. MATHAY. Yes.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. So that you want us to give you $200,000. from the gasoline tax and $40,000. or $80,000. from this bill?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 181, entitled:

An Act concerning the flag of the United States of America and other flags and revising amending consolidating and changing the law relating thereto

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HARDING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Horn, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. HORN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HARDING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Northampton whether the second paragraph of section 12 has been changed from the original bill?

Mr. HORN. It has not been changed.

Mr. HARDING. I would like to ask further of the gentleman whether, in his opinion, the pledge required of the children of each public school, he thinks it is calculated to increase their patriotism?

Mr. HORN. To a certain degree, yes.

Mr. HARDING. Mr. Speaker, the present law relative to the use of the flag in connection with our schools is as follows: "The Board of School Directors shall, if they are not otherwise provided, purchase a United States flag, flag staff and necessary appliances therefor and shall display such flag on or near each public school district in clement weather during school hours, and at such other times as said board may determine." In 1921 someone wanted a bill passed similar to the present bill here, and it was changed to read as follows. "All boards of education, all proprietors or principals of private schools and all authorities in control of parochial schools or other educational institutions shall display the United States National Flag not less than three feet in length within all school buildings under their control each day such schools are in session and in all public schools the board of school directors shall make all rules and regulations for the care and keeping of such flags, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the school district." It seems to me that the law in relation to the flag in school buildings, at the present time, is sufficient. The present bill, in the second paragraph of section 12 reads,

"All boards of education all proprietors or principals of private schools and all authorities in control of parochial schools or other educational institutions shall display the flag of the United States of America not less than three feet in length within each school room of all school buildings under their control during each day such schools are in session In all public schools the board of school directors shall make all rules and necessary regulations for the care and keeping of such flags The expense thereof shall be paid by the school district"

Further along in section 13 we find

The person in charge of every public private or parochial school shall on each school day require the rendering of the following pledge to the United States flag by all the pupils attending such school who are children of American citizens "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands one Nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all" While making such pledge each such pupil shall be in a standing position with the right hand over the heart at the words "to the flag" the right hand shall be extended palm upward toward the Flag and shall be held in that position until the end when the hand shall drop to the side

Now, Mr. Speaker, I have the highest regard for the motive which prompts the gentleman from Northampton in introducing and sponsoring this bill. I believe that he is thoroughly patriotic, but I think his zeal has led him a little too far. I wonder if he has considered the expense of putting into every school room in the State of Pennsylvania a flag three feet in length. That is quite a blow to the funds of the district if it has to be done all over the State of Pennsylvania. I believe the flag flying in front of each school house in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be recognized by the pupils as much more important and not nearly so common and will not become so commonplace as it will if it is placed in each school room where it becomes covered with dust and little thought is given to it. In the second place, this pledge of allegiance will become irksome. You cannot legislate either morals or patriotism into the heart of the man, woman or child. True patriotism is not brought about in that way; true patriotism is taught at the fireside, at the mother's knee and in the psoperly conducted schools, and it is the example of men and women set before there children that patriotism is taught. I was very much changrined and humilated when a bill introduced by this same gentleman, a splendid bill, a bill that would show to the children of this Commonweath that we are patriotic, a bill that asked us to properly observe Decoration Day, Memorial Day, by giving only half of the time to the purpose for which it was intended—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. EARLY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not talking on the bill at the present time; he is speaking on a bill that was considered a few weeks ago.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the bill before the House.

Mr. HARDING. I will close with this thought, inasmuch as the gentleman does not care to hear this, and that is that I have very little regard for the true patriotism of the man who displays flags on his house and who carries a fishing pole or a baseball bat with him when he leaves the house.

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, I have no desire to tire the members at this hour of the day after they have served here so faithfully all day but I want to say just a word or two in support of my bill. The bill which I sponsor is not at the request of someone else, but as the result of service to patriotism of forty or more years. I realize it is to be regretted that we cannot instill the sentiment in the hearts and minds of the man and woman and youth of this country, the true spirit of patriotism, and while I yield to the gentleman who preceded me and realize that each has a right to his opinion, nor do I question his sincere patriotism, yet in these days regardless of the desire for the teaching of sentiment we all realize that it is necessary to legislate in some respects for matters of patriotism. This bill contains not only this particular feature; it defends the flag, and denies the use of the red flag, black flag or scarlet flag. Just a moment more as to the pledge of allegiance. That has been approved by sixty-eight patriotic societies as a universal pledge and has been adopted in thirty-six states for the use in the schools, a universal pledge. I ask you to support this bill for its pure and strictly patriotic merit.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from his Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows:

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 450.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 10, 1925.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith without my approval Senate Bill No. 450 entitled, "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies to reimburse David Cramer for moneys erroneously paid into the State Treasury."

This bill would appropriate to the Department of Property and Supplies five hundred dollars ($500) to reimburse an individual for moneys alleged to have been erroneously paid into the State Treasury. The bill states as facts that the individual in question purchased an automobile from the Commonwealth at a public sale conducted by the Department of Property and Supplies and that the Department of Property and Supplies did not deliver to him the automobile which he purchased but another car which had a market value five hundred dollars ($500) less than the value of the automobile purchased.

I am advised by the Department of Property and Supplies that these statements of facts are entirely erroneous. The individual in question bid on the automobile after a physical inspection thereof and the identical automobile which he purchased was delivered to him. Under these circumstances there can be no justification for a payment out of the State Treasury to the individual concerned of any part of the purchase price of the automobile.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objection of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I move that the question together with further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 330.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 10, 1925.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I herewith return without my approval Senate Bill No. 330 entitled, "An act making an appropriation to the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for Medical Education."

This bill makes an appropriation to The Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia for the support and promotion of medical education.

Two years ago the State Council of Education recommended that subsidies to private schools be limited to those then receiving State aid. The Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia was not at that time receiving State aid and approval of the present appropriation would be a departure by me from the policy recommended by the State Council of Education.

Were the State to depart from the policy recommended by the State Council of Education there are many worthy private schools in Pennsylvania which could properly request State aid if this or any other similar appropriation were approved.

In addition, this institution did not make a request for an appropriation through the Department of Public Instruction prior to the submission of the budget estimates of that Department.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objection of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the question together with further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

In was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to send to the desk a little review that was handed me by the author of the bill, to have it read for the benefit of the Senators:

The review was read as follows:

The gross receipts Act of 1889 put a tax on various companies including electric light companies. In 1924, after thirty-five years the Attorney General's office construes this act to include the facilities owned by a municipality for street and house lighting, although the word municipal nowhere occurs in the act. Furthermore in 1925 the same office says that all municipalities must pay this tax from the time of constructing their plants. The position is untenable:—

1st—The act says Companies—Rail, Express, Telephone, Light, etc.

2nd—Boroughs were not permitted to erect light plants until 1891 and therefore could not be contemplated by the legislature.

3rd—Never have municipalities been construed to mean private corporations. Note the Public Service Law and the decisions under it.

4th—For thirty-five years the attorney generals and auditor generals have so construed the act.

5th—To so construe the act would bankrupt many of the boroughs affected, since the tax could not be passed to the consumer.

Any tax paid on gross receipts by municipal electric light plant is a direct tax on the taxes collected by the municipality. Any revenue derived from the plant is used to relieve tax-payers, the gross receipts must be paid directly out of taxes collected for borough purposes.

Nearly all, if not all, municipal light plants were built and capital improvements paid for by bond issues. These bonds principle and interest must be paid by general borough taxation. Again the gross receipts tax is taken directly from the tax-payer.

The taxing by the state of taxes collected by a subdivision thereof is an unheard of proposition. The taxing of the revenues of a municipality, which are used for the benefit of the whole public exclusively and which relieve the taxpayers has never before been contemplated and could not have been within the contemplation of the Legislature of 1889.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, while I heard a lot of words read up at the desk I do not understand this bill yet. Will some one explain this bill thoroughly to us? Do I understand this bill excludes electric light companies from the payment of taxes? Is that it?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, it does seem to me that in fairness to all concerned we should have a little more time to study this bill. I am in favor of the bill as originally reported, but I want to state to the Senators that I do not know how the bill is affected by this amendment. It seems to me that if the bill were permitted to go over in its order until we can inform ourselves, so as to know whether the amendments vitally affect the bill, we would be in better position to vote on it.

I know of no personal incentive,—at least on my part, to kill or cripple this bill in any way; and it seems to me it would be only a reasonable courtesy to pass the bill over for the time being and see how the amendments affect it.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, I might say that as I understand this bill,—in 1889 a tax was proposed by the Commonwealth on local electric light companies. Many years later municipalities were authorized to construct and operate their own electric light companies. No tax has ever been paid by the municipal companies under this act; but by an opinion of the Attorney General quite recently it is held that these little light companies, in many boroughs of the Commonwealth, are liable for that tax, and are liable for it away back to 1889. This bill takes away no tax that has been collected; it simply places the law as the law has been interpreted up to the present time, and leaves those municipalities where the Commonwealth felt they ought to be for purposes of taxation. That is the purpose of the act.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I went over this bill with Senator Weingartner tonight, and told him I would vote for the bill. However, these amendments are here, and they affect Philadelphia District in some way; I do not know now just how they affect it, and I think that this bill should go over in its order so that persons interested might look over it. I think that we from Philadelphia might well fear to vote for the bill as it stands now. As far as I am concerned, I cannot vote for the bill with the amendments, unless we can let the bill go over in order. If the amendments do not affect it, or injure it in any way we might vote that they be put in; but without knowing how they affect the Philadelphia District I could not vote for the bill.

If the Senators will vote for it to go over, I think it would be of benefit to us all; and under those considerations I ask Senator Barr to kindly withdraw his motion.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I insist on third reading and final passage.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, I want to say that one borough in my district is vitally interested in this bill. The bill as drawn will give the borough the relief it needs. In my opinion it was never intended that this tax should be construed to include every small borough in the Commonwealth which had its own electric light plant. I think, in all fairness, the bill should be passed; and I believe that as the bill is drawn it will do the work it has been intended it should do.

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, I want to say, just in addition to the remarks made by the Senator from Northumberland County, that if the opinion of the Attorney General should prevail in respect to this bill, many of the boroughs of this Commonwealth would become bankrupt, by reason of the fact that they would have to go back and pay taxes from the time their municipal electric light plants were erected down to the present time. It was never intended that municipal light plants should come in under the law; and for thirty-five years they have been exempt. But now, for some reason or other, the Attorney General has concluded that they do come under this law, and this bill is to relieve that situation.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President and Gentleman of the Senate, it seems to me that this bill ought to pass. The bill has for its purpose relieving the boroughs from the tax upon the gross receipts of electric light companies operated by the boroughs—not for profit but for the convenience of the citizens of the various boroughs.

There is nothing harmful in this bill. It is intended to clear up a bad situation, and it deserves the affirmative vote of every member of this Senate.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, the City of Pittsburgh is involved in this question,—since the consolidation of the City of Allegheny with the City of Pittsburgh. When the City of Allegheny was separate it had its own electric light plant; and even since it has been consolidated it has operated certain units of that plant, and does even to the present day. The amount of money involved in taxes in connection with that electric light plant,—which is no part of the City of Pittsburgh, nobody estimate. Therefore, Pittsburgh is vitally interested in the passage of this act. And not only that but there are a number of boroughs that have their own electric light plants, to furnish light to their own citizens; and to reach back to the time of their inception, and compel them to pay extraordinary taxes would involve bond issues in every one of those boroughs to pay those taxes in accordance with the Attorney General's opinion.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, as I have a personal and private interest in this bill I desire to be recorded as present and not voting.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, will be so recorded.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I want to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that this bill will run the Commonwealth into several hundred thousand dollars more of an indebtedness than it has money to pay.

This bill, as I understand, had its inception from the Municipal Court of the County of Philadelphia and from the County Courts of Allegheny; and it looked like such a good horse that everybody mounted it, and they got in the Common Pleas Courts and the Superior Court and the Supreme Court, and I believe if there were a dozen other courts they would be in it.

Personally, I would like to see the judges of this State fixed so that the courts would be propertly manned, and then that they would be paid salaries commensurate with the services they render. Not long ago I was talking to a man from one of the northeastern counties, and he told me his judge had so little work to do that he could take care of five counties of like size and that he was in Florida all winter and his work was being done by judges from other counties.

I have a very distinct recollection, here, in 1919, of feeling the steam roller for the first time 49 to 1, when the County of Allegheny had its judiciary increased to five courts,—when they said if these two men were added to the bench there would be no other judges from the outside come in. And they have never ceased to come in! And they have added an increase to the expense of the State of Pennsylvania. And when a court will convene at 10 o'clock and will adjourn at 3, and take two or three months' vacation, and work for about six months in the year, it does not seem to me that it is time to advance the salaries.

I am mighty sorry this bill is not confined to the clerks and those judges who are entitled to the increased salaries, like your Municipal Court of Philadelphia and your County Court of Allegheny. But if this bill becomes a law you will add one thing after another until you come to a place where you will break the State of Pennsylvania in order to pay something they do not earn, is a matter, to my mind, that should be met head on.

I understand that there are a lot of men here that are lawyers; and I understand that it is going to be mighty unpleasant, even though, they would like to vote against this bill, no to be able to vote against it. One thing I can congratulate the State of Pennsylvania on this time is that there were no members of the Supreme Court on the floor of the Senate lobbying for an increase of salary. That was a disgrace to the State of Pennsylvania in 1921.

I, personally, am against this bill; because the bill is so drawn that I cannot help being against it. If it were segregated so as to apply to the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the County Court of Allegheny County I would support it for any decent, fair raise; but under the circumstances I hope sincerely, for the effect it will bear on the people it affects, that the bill will be defeated, and that it will be defeated so that they will understand that more service must be rendered before more money can be paid.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I do not often disagree with my colleague from Allegheny County, Mr. Barr, but I must take exception to the remarks that you heard from him tonight. He said the judges sit from ten to three. Well, we all know that they have plenty of work,—work that takes many, many hours, that the public knows nothing of. We know that they have matters of great importance. We know that it is an office that calls for great dignity. We know that we should have men of great independence; and we should put those men in such a position that they can serve with dignity and independence; and I am sure that if the men that are on the bench today were assured of that they would not think of resigning. We all know of some men on the Supreme Court bench who have passed up practices that have netted them a hundred thousand dollars a year; and they are serving now, of course, for very much less. I am sure they are deserving of this increase; and I hope the Senate will give it.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I greatly regret to be opposed to this bill. I have great esteem and respect for the Judiciary of Pennsylvania. I have consistently voted for increased salaries of judges ever since I have been here, realizing and appreciating that the judge is in a different position from the average citizen, because he must depend upon the salary that is paid him in his judicial position. But I do believe that we have reached a peak in salaries for the Judiciary of Pennsylvania, that we are not justified in going beyond; and for those reasons I am opposed to this bill.

I have had three judges of the appellate courts of Pennsylvania tell me that their salaries were commensurate with the services rendered. I know the judges are not all in favor of this measure.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President and Fellow Members, inasmuch as I propose to support this bill, I would like to have leave to have my remarks printed in the Journal, and to add thereto that inasmuch as the Senator from Chester County, Mr. Eyre, has referred to some members of the appellate court, I know, myself, that there are some members of that court who would not object to having their salaries increased.

When you bear in mind that in the State of New Jersey the Vice Chancellors are paid $18,000 per annum, and the Vice Chancellors in New Jersey are of a separate court—the Court of Chancellory prevails there, and the only jurisdiction they have is to hear equity cases and pass upon divorce proceedings; and when the legislators in the State of New Jersey thought it wise to increase their salaries to at least $18,000, and those of the Supreme Court Justices also of the State of New Jersey, and that the lay judges receive $40.00 per day, it seems to me that in this great imperial commonwealth, with our great resources and power to meet all obligation, in order to make it attractive to men of ability, so that men when they are on the bench will not be met with the thought that they will not be able to provide properly for their families, because of the obligation laid upon them by reason of social obligations, by reason of the position they occupy, it seems to me that the increases proposed here all along the line are not exorbitant, and that we ought not to set up the cry of economy.

It is very poor economy indeed, as far as the Commonwealth is concerned, if we are not able to call to our assistance to pass upon matters judicial men who are learned in the law and a credit to the bench. We would not have, I believe, as we see here at times, impeachment proceedings over men who stray from the straight path and do questionable things, as we have seen in our legislative body recently.

When abroad this summer, and when looking upon that great jurist, Lord Haldane, and when inquiring what salary he received, I was informed that the Lord High Chancellor of England is paid $25,000 a year. And I hark back to my own United States and see upon the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States, an ex-president of the United States, the Honorable Chief Justice, William Howard Taft, who receives but $17,800 and heads the court having the highest power of any court in the world, I wonder why there is such a discrepancy in the salaries,—$25,000 for the Lord High Chancellor of England and $17,800 for the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States; and especially when it must be admitted by every man here that the cost of living has increased over 200 per cent in these last few years in these United States and that the dollar, which was worth 100 cents in 1914, is almost down to 50 cents today, and when we know that there are men who are engaged in the practice of the law who will not accept the appointments for the bench because they would be making a great sacrifice as far as their families are concerned.

And, on the other hand, when we hear of members of the Judiciary resigning because they cannot do justice to their families isn't it time for us to pause to wonder why, wonder if this is a monstrous bill, as has been suggested here by my distinguished friend from Allegheny County, Mr. Barr?

In the State of New York the salaries are higher than they are in Pennsylvania. Over in Illinois the last Legislature passed a bill increasing the salaries of the judges $5,000 in addition to the salaries they are receiving. And it seems to me that we are not doing justice to anybody or in any way putting our hands into the treasury and robbing the treasury to pay the judges of this Commonwealth; because we look to them to do exact justice.

Let us put upon the bench men who are beyond any reproach, men who cannot be, in any way, swerved in their duty to the Commonwealth to see that impartial justice is done and they should not be embarrassed because of not being able to meet the conditions their position entails.

In order to keep the standard of our courts on the high plane that it is on now let us vote for this bill, and see that these gentlemen are properly compensated for their services.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade, if he ever knew of any vacancy in any court, from the Supreme Court down, where there were not anywhere from ten to twenty candidates for that court quickly reaching for the job as of that date? Did he ever know of any vacancy in the Judiciary where there were no candidates?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I can speak for myself only; I do not know the feelings of other people. I do not know of any situation that has occurred at any time such as the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, has presented to the Senate. I say that the gentleman from Allegheny is mistaken, and I regret very much he has said, upon the floor of the Senate, what he has in criticism of some judges of the State of Pennsylvania. It seems to me a man cannot come into this Chamber of any measure, no matter how worthy, unless he is sharply criticized by some of the Senators of this body; and I regret very much that the Senator from Allegheny has said what he has, which he would not have said if he had had respect for the office, even if he had not for the men; he would not give vent to his feelings, and would not besmirch the reputation of the men who serve on our Judiciary.

I desire to submit the following statement of facts:

WHERE THE BILL ORIGINATED

Senate Bill No. 1185, (House Bill No. 279), is part of a nation-wide plan to provide adequate salaries for Judges of our Courts, the United States District Court Judges as well as Judges of Pennsylvania Courts.

At a special meeting held by the Allegheny County Bar Association, January 23, 1925, resolutions were adopted endosing legislation then pending before the United States Congress and House Bill No. 279 in the Pennsylvania Legislature fixing new salaries for the Judges.

Among the Allegheny County lawyers endorsing legislation providing adequate compensation for the Judiciary and asking favorable consideration of House Bill No. 279, are:

Joseph Stadtfeld, James H. Gray, H. K. Siebeneck, Frank C. McGirr, John G. Frazer, James Milholland, E. W. Smith, Joseph H. Bialas, Park J. Alexander, Alexander J. Barron, A. T. Morgan, Albert C. Hirsch, Gifford K. Wright, W. D. Grimes, W. H. McNaugher, F. E. Milligan, Ralph D. McKee, Norval R. Daugherty, Edw. J. I. Gannon, S. M. Hazlett, James Ralph, Edward B. Scull, C. B. Lean, Jr., W. D. McBryar, Jr., Stanley Lyon, R. F. Sample, Oscar T. Taylor, Hiram Schock, Walter S. Lobengier, Raymond D. Evans and Geo. J. Campbell.

Representative Thomas W. Neely of the Thirteenth Legislative District of Allegheny County, at the request of members of the Allegheny County Bar Association, introduced the bill. Since then the bill has attracted favorable comment throughout the State among the newspapers and elsewhere. There seems to be no argument against the proposition, that if the Courts are to function efficiently and impartially administer justice, the bench must be made attractive to lawyers of ability who will fill these high places in the gift of the people with dignity and honor.

The people are willing everywhere that good Judges be paid adequate and reasonable salaries, so that they can meet living conditions, maintain that standard required of them upon the bench, and fulfill their duties to the people and their families without inconvenience or hardship.

ENDORSED BY THE PRESS

The Pittsburgh Press published the following editorial on Tuesday evening, January 27, 1925:

HIGHER SALARIES FOR JUDGES

The Allegheny County Bar Association is not alone in its opinion that an increase of the salary of common pleas and orphans' court judges is advisable in the public interest for the purpose of retaining upon, and bringing to, the bench men of the highest character and first-class professional ability.

Four years ago the Legislature increased the salaries of the judges of the Superior and Supreme Courts. The Legislature recognized the fact that judges were subject to the same high cost of living that has overtaken all other men since the war period.

If judicial salaries are not raised, it seems reasonable to suppose the public will face the liability of a lowered judicial standard. Able men now on the bench, realizing their ability to earn two or three times as much in private law practice, will tend to resign. And there will be just as unquestionably a tendency upon the part of able lawyers to decline appointments or elections to the places thus made vacant.

Judicial honor will be in danger of going to men of inferior ability, who would earn much more on the bench than they could ever earn in private practice. The public might thus suffer the personnel of the judiciary to be seriously impaired.

The danger is not an imaginary but a real one, in the opinion of the Allegheny County Bar Association, whose members are in position to know the association thoroughly. The association has voted endorsement of a bill introduced yesterday at Harrisburg to increase the salaries of common pleas and orphans' court judges from $12,000 (the present figure) to $16,000 a year. It is the State which pays the salaries, and the bill would apply to judges in all the counties of the Commonwealth.

Public opinion, we believe, is ready to back up the Bar Association endorsement, and will in fact be favorably influenced by that endorsement. It would seem to be a wise public policy to make the salaries high enough to hold the services of really able men—and then see to it that no other kind of men are appointed (or elected) to the office.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger on Saturday, February 8, 1925, had this to say editorially:

PAY OF FEDERAL JUDGES

Two identical bills dealing with the salaries of Federal Judges are pending in Congress, one introduced in the Senate by Senator Reed and the other in the House by Representative Graham. These measures aim to bring the compensations paid to the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States and to the Judges of the Circuit, District and District of Columbia Courts up to a point commensurate with the value of the service rendered and with the demands made upon these officials by the increased cost of living and by their social obligations.

There is, however, another aspect of the question of judicial salaries that is even more important than that of justice to the incumbents. If the high character of the Federal judiciary had depended upon the rewards of the office it would today be far different from what it is. The wonder is that lawyers of ability and possessing the judicial faculty can be persuaded to make the sacrifice involved in acceptance of the ermine.

A comparison of the salaries paid our own Supreme Court and other Federal Court Judges with those received by jurists in corresponding positions abroad, and even in some of the States of the Union, shows that the schedules of the pending bills are far from excessive or unreasonable. The amounts allotted are carefully graded and tend to equalize the Federal and State judicial salaries. Their enactment by Congress will be a simple act of justice of these hard-working public officials.

A GOOD JUDGE CAN'T BE OVERPAID.

More adequate compensation for judges moved a step nearer yesterday when the House passed finally the Neely bill to raise judicial salaries throughout Pennsylvania. The measure would pay judges in Allegheny and Philadelphia counties $15,000 annually and in smaller counties from $12,500 down to $9,500. Common pleas and orphans' court judges in this county are now paid $12,000. Judges of the county court receive $8,000.

Objection was voiced yesterday by some in the name of economy. It was said that the bill would add $250,000 annually to the State's expenditures. In answer all that need be said is that it is never economy, nor thrift, to pay either a barrowman or a judge less than he deserves.

A good judge is worth many times $15,000. A good barrowman may also be worth much more than he is paid. The difference in the situation of the two is this: that the good barrowman will advance to a better job; for the judge there is no more beyond. Most of our judges have sacrificed careers fame and fortune at the bar to put on the ermine of public service.

To pay our judges $15,000 instead of $12,000 may make it just that much easier in the future to obtain good judges from the ranks of excellent lawyers.

The House has done well to pass this bill. The Senate may be depended upon, with equal good sense, to approve. Let there be no mistaken arguments of economy. There is always enough money to pay adequately those who serve us greatly. There is no more important responsibility than that which rests upon our judges, and, on the whole, no group of public servants bear that responsibility more worthily.—Pittsburgh Sun, April 2, 1925.

WHAT ARE ADEQUATE SALARIES FOR JUDGES?

The per capita cost to the people of Pennsylvania for salaries of its Supreme Court Justices is 1.726 cents, compared with 2.647 cents in New York, 7.506 cents in New Jersey, and 12.011 cents in Delaware.

The salaries of all the other courts in Pennsylvania, Superior, Common Pleas, Orphans', Municipal and County Courts in Pennsylvania is 14.459 cents per capita, compared with 19.132 cents for New York, 49.498 cents for Connecticut, 25.240 cents for Texas, 50.024 cents for Maryland, and 25.381 cents for Florida.

THE AVERAGE INCREASE

In salaries of Judges of the Common Pleas and Orphans' Courts of Pennsylvania proposed by Senate Bill No. 1185 (House Bill No. 279) is 18.10 per cent. over present salaries, or 16.883 cents per capita, as compared with 19.132 cents per capita in the State of New York.

The above figures are taken from a special report on Judicial Salaries presented by Senator Overman and ordered to be printed in the records of the United States Senate on February 14, 1925.

ALL PEOPLE WELCOME FACTS

From Facts They Form Opinions, Act and Produce Results.

If the average Pennsylvania Taxpayer is asked how much per capita tax expenditure annually is for the courts of justice he will at once admit his ignorance, assert it is too high, and claim it must be as much as several dollars.

But what are the facts?

Have you, before passing judgment, looked into the facts?

The 1923 Annual Report of the Attorney General of the United States shows that the annual per capita tax for the Common Pleas, Orphans' and other courts, excepting the Supreme Court, was 14.459 cents annually. It is costing the people for all expenditures in connection with the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania 1.726 cents per capita annually to maintain tribunal.

Is there any thinking citizen of the Keystone State who will regret, or criticize the taxes, for the protection in personal and civil liberties which this expenditure procures for him?

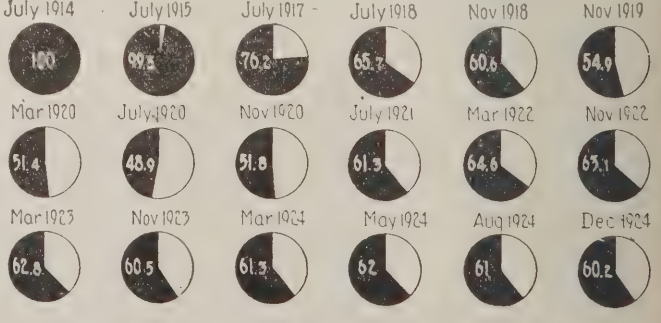
The State of Illinois recently added $5,000 per annum to the salaries of its Supreme Court judges and raised the judges sitting in courts corresponding in jurisdiction to the Pennsylvania Common Pleas and Orphans' Court from $10,000 to $15,000.

By an Act of March 4, 1924, the State of New Jersey gave its Supreme Court judges $18,000 per year, and its Vice Chancellors, who hear only equity cases, $18,000. Lay judges were increased to $40 per day, and the circuit judges, corresponding to Pennsylvania Common Pleas and Orphans' Court, to $16,000 per annum.

These States moved up because they had to compete with the world of business to get competent servants in the highest and most honored offices in the gift of people.

MR. SENATOR

Are you willing to do the very best thing for the people of Pennsylvania? If so,



VOTE FOR SENATE BILL NO. 1185

(House Bill No. 279)

DOLLARS ALMOST CUT IN HALVES

FOR JUDGES WHO HAVE SERVED A FULL TERM OF TEN YEARS

Look at the Purchasing Power of the Dollar in Cents Compared With Ten Years Ago.

The above chart was prepared and based on the cost of living by the National Industrial Conference Board.

LIVING IS NOT GETTING CHEAPER

The Forbes Magazine of March 15, 1925, publishes statistics showing that in all branches of industrial average

WAGES HAVE INCREASED SINCE THE YEAR 1914 201 PER CENT.

HENRY FORD SAID

"No United States District Court Judge should be paid a salary of less than $25,000 per year. We should apply sound common business sense to our courts, and have no right to complain against our courts if position on the bench is not made as attractive to the highest type of judicial talent as the practice of law. No judge can give the best public service if he must consider living conditions."

WHAT ABOUT PENNYSYLVANIA COURTS?

If one of America's richest and most successful business men criticizes the United States for its penury in dealing with its courts which sit in Federal matters to try litigation between persons resident in different States, what would he say of the salaries required for the courts resident with and close to all our people which must enforce not only our civil rights but all criminal laws?

Would there ever be impeachment proceedings in our Legislature against Judges if the compensation for service on the bench were sufficiently adequate to provide contentment with living conditions?

Could a member of the Legislature argue, when opposing a law enforcement measure that the courts are as much to blame for failure to enforce laws if the bench was made attractive by salaries which would enable the highest type of lawyers to fill a position of so great honor and authority with dignity and efficiency?

Better salaries for judges means better judges, better service, greater confidence in our courts, and in time less crime and fewer courts.

THESE PENNSYLVANIA LAWYERS.

Have Been Appointed a Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar to Work for Adequate Compensation for Judges.

The advancing costs of living, the importance of the judicial office, its duties, and the requirement of custom that a Judge shall refrain from all commercial or business life, these lawyers say, justify the demand that the salaries of Judges be at least sufficient to support and maintain them and their families in accord with the dignity of the office and without inconvenience or hardship.

The practice of law leaves an attorney free to engage in any other business to supplement his professional income. Many lawyers earn incomes much more attractive than the salary of a Judge. Nowadays some of our ablest Judges feel they cannot continue on the bench, especially if they have children to educate. The result is that some of the ablest Judges, to overcome this situation, are leaving the bench, and injuring the public service.

The salaries paid to American Judges as compared with the salaries of Judges in some other countries make our courts look ridiculous. In England the Lord Chancellor of England receives $50,000.00 per year, as compared with $17,500.00 now paid to the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, which throughout the world is undoubtedly rated as the tribunal having the greatest powers of any Court. Even in Ireland there are no Judges of general jurisdiction receiving a salary less than $17,500.00, while in South Africa the lowest salary paid to a Judge or Chancellor is $17,500.00. In the State of New Jersey the Vice-Chancellors, who only hear equity matters and do not sit in jury trials, receive $18,000.00 per year.

Many lawyers of recognized ability and judicial temperament, who have a high appreciation of the honor attached to the bench, would be willing to devote a goodly portion of their lives to public service by accepting judgeships, if Judges were paid adequate salaries. Eventually no lawyer would aspire to the bench unless he knew that his fellow members of the Bar believed him thoroughly qualified.

In Allegheny County a Judge recently resigned because his salary was insufficient to support his family and educate his children, while the practice of law enables him to earn an income sufficient for all the needs of his family.

Since Congress adjourned on March 3 last without providing adequate salaries for the United States District Court Judges, three Federal Judges have asked to be relieved of their offices, and others are threatening to resign.

Several able Pennsylvania judges who have distinguished themselves by real public service upon the bench are known to be considering tempting positions in the world of business. If such Judges, by their efficiency and ability, attract offers to return to private life, can the people hope for the best from their courts if the only difference is one of adequate compensation?

ADEQUATE SALARIES FOR THE PENNSYLVANIA JUDICIARY MEANS ADEQUATE COMPENSATION AND EFFICIENT COMPETENT PUBLIC SERVICE BY THE COURTS.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, will state his point of order.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade, has not answered my question, nor stated the facts. I besmirched no man's character, and there is nothing in the record that will show it in any manner, shape or form; and as to the Senator from Delaware's regard for the court, I do not bow to him at all in my regard for the Court. Some courts are as high as his, perhaps all courts, but not all judges. The fact that the Senator from Delaware would undertake to so twist the remarks of any man on the floor of this Senate as to make him say what he did not say is beyond all reason as well as common-sense.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, this bill having been in my committee, I have my own opinion on the subject; and I wish to say that the only proper way to fix the salaries of judges of the State is to do it in one bill. It is just as proper to regulate and fix the salaries of all the judges of the State in one bill as it is to fix the salaries of the members of the General Assembly. It would be quite improper to fix the salaries of the members of the Senate in one bill and the salaries of the members of the House in another bill.

The Legislature is one unit of our govenrment, and so is the Judiciary. In years gone by we have been seesawing. One session of the Legislature would fix the salaries of the judges of the lower court, and the next session would realize that the salaries of the judges of the lower courts were out of proportion to the salaries of the judges of the appellate courts; and in that way we have been seesawing, and I say the only proper method of fixing the salaries of the judges of the State is by doing it in one complete bill in which are included all the judges, from the municipal court judges and the county court judges, to the justices of the Supreme Court of the State.

The facts are not exactly as my friend from Allegheny County, Senator Barr, stated. There were different bills establishing the salaries of the judges of the State in the General Assembly. There was a bill here fixing the salaries of the judges of the municipal courts. There was another bill fixing the salaries of the judges of the common pleas courts. And these bills were combined in one whole bill; and then, of course, it was ascertained that if the bill in that shape would be passed, that again would throw out of proportion the salaries of the judges of the lower courts—in comparison with the salaries of the judges of the appellate courts. Certainly the salaries of the judges of the appellate courts must have a fair proportion of increase over the salaries of judges of the lower courts.

The justices of the Superior Court and of the Supreme Court are compelled to be away from home; they must travel all over the State. In local courts the common pleas judges are at home in their own counties, and do not have to travel to Harrisburg, Williamsport, Pittsburgh and Scranton, and live away from home all the time. And then too, if you want to make the bench of the appellate courts attractive you must have a fair difference of salary; otherwise nobody will leave the common pleas bench for the higher court, having that inconvenience of living away from home, traveling all over the State, that additional expense. Everybody would prefer to be in the lower court rather than in the higher court. Therefore, I say this is the proper method of fixing the salaries of the judges.

It is true, perhaps, to a certain extent, that the Supreme Court and the Superior Court were included without much pressure from them, but there is not one in the whole lot that objects. I admit they have not forced themselves into this, but it was seen that the salaries of the common pleas judges would be out of proportion to the salaries of the higher courts if the higher courts were not included; and for that reason they were included.

As has been said by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, you cannot judge the value of the services of a man on the bench by the number of hours he holds court. The principal duties and most important functions of the judge are those performed in his Chambers, writing his opinions and making his decisions. I wish that a good many of them would spend more time in Chambers, looking up the law and writing correct opinions, than in just conducting hearings and shooting off at random, without knowing, half the time, whither they are going. And for that reason it is very important that they do spend much time off the bench, in the libraries and in the privacy of their Chambers, looking up the law and writing their opinions; and I trust that the members of the Senate will pass this bill.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, this bill is what is known as the Muncy Bill. There have been a great many inquiries made to this bill, and it gives me a great deal of pleasure to state to the members of the Senate that all objections have been removed. Senator Sones, who was very much interested in the inception of this institution, and who had some objections at the outset, as to the originally prepared bill, has withdrawn his objection, as I understand; and now we are up to the point of voting for the bill,—as I hope, affirmatively.

There are a great many women here to-night who are interested in this bill, interested in the uplift of the fallen woman; and they believe in the bill, in its virtue. I think it is a bill about which we need not concern ourselves as to a difference of opinion; and it would be a very great tribute indeed if we could pass this bill, a tribute to the womanhood of Pennsylvania.

The proposed bill, amending the act of 1913 (Approved July 25, 1913) providing for the establishment of a State Industrial Home for Women, has for its object the relief of unfortunate conditions under which women offenders are now confined by making their transfer and commitment to the State Industrial Home which has been established at Muncy.

I. Reformatories for Women Offenders.

Muncy is an institution of a modern type representing a tendency of recent years to afford to youthful female offenders, not too far gone in vice and crime, the advantages of reformatory treatment analogous to that provided for youthful male offenders at such institutions as the Huntingdon Reformatory in this State and the Elmira Reformatory in New York.

There is this difference, however, between the reformatories for men and those for women. As a general rule the former receive only first offenders who have been convicted of serious offenses, whereas the number of women found guilty for the first time of felony or misdemeanors of the more serious type is too small to justify the maintenance of separate institutions for their custody and treatment. For this reason the courts in the several states that have established such institutions for women have been accorded the greater latitude in the selection of women for commitment to this type of institution. There is no restriction to first offenders nor to those found guilty of serious offenses. Indeed, the modern tendency, exemplified in the Massachusetts Reformatory for Women and in the corresponding institution at Clinton, New Jersey, is to permit or to require the confinement in a reformatory of all women who have been found guilty of any original offense and who are not deemed suitable cases for release on probation. From these should be excepted those convicted of drug addiction or of the violation of municipal ordinances, who may be committed for a few days or months to the local jail or workhouse.

II. The present law governing commitments to Muncy.

Under the law providing for the establishment of the State Industrial Home for Women "any court of record of this Commonwealth, exercising criminal jurisdiction, may in its discretion sentence to the said State Industrial Home any female between sixteen and thirty years of age upon conviction for or upon pleading guilty of the commission of any criminal offense punishable under the laws of this State." Such commitments are for an indeterminate period without a fixed minimum, but with a maximum of three years except where the maximum term specified by law for the crime for which the prisoner was sentenced exceeds three years, in which case the prisoner may be detained until such maximum term has expired.

The trustees of the Home, if there is unoccupied room in the institution, may also requisition the authorities of any penitentiary or prison for the transfer to the Home of suitable female prisoners of the class that might have been committed to the institution. The prisoners so transferred remain subject to the sentence originally imposed on them.

III. The condition of women convicts not committed to Muncy.

As commitments to Muncy are, thus, (1) limited to women under thirty years of age, (2) are in the discretion of the courts and (3) as the facilities of the Industrial Home are extremely limited (it is now filled to capacity with about 100 inmates), many women guilty of major offenses (in practice nearly all such women) are committed to the several county prisons or to the State penitentiaries, Since 1923, the penitentiaries have discontinued receiving women, and have scattered their female prisoners through the county jails, under the act of that year permitting such transfers.

In none of these institutions can women receive proper or decent care. They are usually without occupation or recreation and are in most instances under the supervision and control of male guards and attendants. In most of the county prisons the women occupy cells in the same corridor with male prisoners and in no such institution is there any segregation of the young first offenders from the older and more depraved prisoners.

IV. The Solution.

The situation above described has been carefully studied in consultation with experts, and with officials of the State Welfare Department and the institution at Muncy.

There is complete agreement that there is no sound reason for limiting the population of a women's reformatory to women under 30 years of age or to such as may be selected by the courts for reformatory treatment.

It is therefore proposed:

1. To seek from the present Legislature an appropriation of, $200,000 for the purpose of doubling the present capacity of the State Industrial Home for Women, so as to make room for appproximately 100 additional women prisoners, and

2. To secure amendments to the present law governing commitments and transfers to the Muncy institution so as to secure to the women heretofore committed to the penitentiaries or for terms of over one year to the county prisons the benefits of the State Industrial Home.

V. Terms of Proposed Bill.

Briefly the amendments embodied in this bill provide:

(1) That, pending the completion of the additional equipment of the Muncy institution, the age limit on commitments shall be done away with but the discretion of the courts be left undisturbed. The present policy brings to the institution too many incorrigibles of the prostitute type and not enough of those who are suffering from long sentences to the county prisons.

(2) That transfers shall no longer be restricted to the youthful inmates of the penitentiaries and county prisons. The danger of overcrowding is obviated by the fact that such transfers will be made only when desired by the Trustees of the State Industrial Home.

(3) That, when adequate room has been provided at Muncy, the discretion of the courts shall cease and all women sentenced to imprisonment for offenses punishable by imprisonment for a longer period than a year shall be committed to Muncy.

It is believed that the danger of overcrowding is obviated by the restriction contained in the words underscored.

(4) The present law provides for the transfer of incorrigible cases to a state penitentiary. This has become practically inoperative by the policy adopted by the penitentiaries of transferring their women prisoners to the county prisons. The provision has always been of doubtful expediency. What is highly important, however, is that the State Industrial Home shall have the privilege of transferring its feebleminded inmates to the Laurelton State Village, where they can be properly cared for and treated.

The amendment to Section 17 of the Muncy Act aims to accomplish this desirable result.

Mr. PRESIDENT, I would like to interrogate further the Senator from Blair, Mr. Snyder.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Blair, Mr. Snyder, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I believe they will not get it, I do not care to state the reason why.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, what the purpose is of a hearing at this late day?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, the hearing is for the purpose of giving some high grade attorneys from the city of Philadelphia an opportunity to be heard on the bill. They feel that this legislation that ought to be thoroughly considered and digested before it is passed by this Legislature.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am informed by the Attorney General's office that this bill is absolutely necessary to give the Commonwealth revenue if the bonus is to come up to the estimate during the next biennium. The Auditor General and the Corporation Bureau, of the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, strongly urge that the bill be passed. The only objection comes from a few law firms, who believe that under the existing law several large corporations can escape the payment of bonus entirely on a legal technicality.

I understand that the plan is to recommit the bill to a committee for a hearing and there let it die, which should be avoided by all means, if possible. On the strength of the report that I got from the Auditor General's office and at their request I am asking that the Senate prevent this bill from going back to a committee for hearing at this late day.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Barr and Mr. Snyder and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17.

Aron,	Freeman,	MacDade,	Salus,
Baldwin,	Heaton,	McNichol,	Schantz,
Daix,	Homsher,	Patton,	Sones,
DeWitt,	Krause,	Phipps,	Vare,
Eyre,

NAYS—23.

Barr,	Earnest,	Joyce,	Painter,
Betts,	Einstein,	Kunkle,	Quigley,
Brown,	Gelder,	Lanius,	Snyder,
Coyne,	Griswold,	Mansfield,	Steele,
Culbertson,	Harris,	Miller,	Weingartner,
Derrick,	Huffman,	Norton,

So the question was determined in the negative.

QUESTIONS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. TURNER Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, about twenty three years ago there came to this House a citizen and a resident of Delaware County. During all of that time he has graced the bench in front of the Speaker's rostrum. He has left, I know, upon the older members of this House an indelible impression by his kindly and courteous treatment, and I am sure that those younger members of the House who have come in contact with him this year, cannot help but have regretted that the hand of illness was laid upon him, and he was taken away from us in the early part of the session, and has been ill at his home ever since.

Your Committee that has had in charge the awarding of presents from the members of this House to a number of clerks and assistants here, felt that rather than wait until the end of this session, as long as the Clerk of this House was confined to his home, that they would like to give him a radio set that he might while away the hours and enjoy some of the things that were coming through the air. And so in charge of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Patterson, a very fine set was purchased and installed in his home, and the message has come here to us tonight that yesterday the Clerk of this House, Mr. Garvin sat at home and enjoyed that radio set which you so generously presented. I can see him sitting there in that comfortable home in Delaware County, with its wide lawn, and trees in front, in a community in which he has been a respected citizen for many years, and one of the leaders, and I can see him sitting there tonight, perhaps, listening to the messages that are coming in, but I know that his thoughts are not upon the speeches and the music, I know his mind is here, that he can visualize and see the members of this House in the closing days, which he has witnessed so much in the past, and I know that his mind is tuning in, and if there were a microphone here before us to send him a message, he would be getting messages of good will that are going over the waves of the air tonight and he would be receiving them. I know if there were a sending set there in front of him, he would say to you in his quaint and amiable way, "I want to thank you members of the House"; and I know that we are sending him the wish that he may soon return to us and to good health.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1455, file folio 5409, entitled:

An Act to provide for State registration of Osteopathic Nurses to establish in the Department of Public Instruction a departmental administartive board to be known as the State Board of Examiners for the Registration of Osteopathic Nurses in conection therewith and to provide penalties for the violation of certain provisions regarding registration was defeated on final passage on Wednesday, April 8th, be reconsidered.

Mr. HANTZ.. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I want to be very brief on this bill. There is some misapprehension as to the purpose of this bill. I wish to say to the members of the House that in 1909 the osteopaths were authorized by an act of assembly to practice, in addition to osteopathy, surgery, obstetrics and the treatment of mental and contagious diseases, which is the same course which is provided in every other school of medicine in the State of Pennsylvania. They require two years of surgery and they have had in connection with that an examining board. The act was approved by one of the greatest Governors of the State, Governor Stuart, and they have been practicing all these years with a wonderful hospital in Philadelphia filled with cases of surgery and obstetrics, some of them very abnormal cases, requiring expert surgical and physician's skill. Now, I want to say in connection with that—I shall be very brief—that two years age we passed an act for the registration of nurses. I was very active in helping get that bill through. I want to say to you, members of this house, that my wife and her sister are both graduate registered nurses and I am on the board of the Wyoming Valley Homeopathic Hospital of Wilkes-Barre, which also has a nurses training school. Now, the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy with its wondeful hospital, has a three year course for nurses, and under the conditions of the passing of this medical bill the osteopathic nurse cannot readily, you can see, be registered. They are asking in this bill to have a state board of examiners the same as is provided in the act of 1909, a state board of examiners for their school for practicing osteopathy; and in this course, these young women have a thorough course in surgery, obstetrics and the treatement of mental and contageous diseases the same as is required in the hospital on which I am on the board and of which my wife and daughter and sister are graduates. It may be of interest to you to know that I have a daughter who is a Columbia University graduate—you will admit she has some intelligence and education—who had a Cæsarian operation performed in that hospital, and she was at home in two weeks with her boy, alive and well, perfectly happy and spoke in the highest terms of the efficiency and strict discipline of the nurses of that institution. I ask the members of the house to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 967.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 9, 1925.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 967, entitled, "An act validating certain contracts in writing made by boroughs in connection with proper legal requirements of such boroughs involving an expenditure of over five hundred dollars without complying with all of the requirements of an act approved the fourteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and forty-seven) entitled 'An act to amend section two of article one of chapter five of an act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve) entitled "An act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" ' where such contracts have been either in whole or in part performed by the contractor."

This Bill is to validate any contracts in writing entered into by any borough in connection with the legal requirements of such borough where such contract has been made with the lowest responsible bidder "but without complying with all the requirements of" the act of April 14, 1921, P. L. 147, amending Section 2 of Article 1 of Chapter 5 of the act of May 14, 1915, P. L. 312, known as "The General Borough Act", and where the contract has been in whole or in part performed by the contractor.

The words in this Bill "without complying with all the requirements of an Act", the act aforementioned, are too general and indefinite. If, for instance, the Bill is intended to remedy omissions in the time or manner of advertisement for bids, or any other requirement concerning notice to bidders, said omission should be specified in the Bill. Furthermore, to validate contracts made under such circumstances would be decidely unfair to persons who might otherwise have bid on the contract, with a possible loss to the borough as a direct consequence. To validate such contracts would be an unwise public policy.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

'And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

VETO LAID UPON TABLE.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the veto of the Governor together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, do I understand this bill has been amended to apply to counties of the first class?

The SPEAKER. Are you asking the Chair or asking someone else?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of the bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of the bill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MILLAR. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. RHODES. Do I understand that this bill has been amended to apply only to counties of the first class.

Mr. MILLAR. I understand the amendment will bring it to apply only to counties of the first class, because the situation it covers does not exist any where else.

Mr. RHODES. I did not hear the gentleman here.

Mr. MILLAR. I understand the situation it covers does not exist in any other county.

Mr. RHODES. Well, has there been a specific amendment offered to cover merely counties of the first class in this State?

Mr. MILLAR. As I understand file folio 5583 now.

Mr. RHODES. I may state that the file folio does not say that it applies only to counties of the first class What I am asking is, did the gentleman from Philadelphia offer an amendment to apply only to counties of the first class?

Mr. MILLAR. The amendmena I offered is incorporated in file folio 5583 and as I told the gentleman sometime ago if he had any other amendment he should submit it.

Mr. RHODES. As the bill now stands it is not amended to apply only to your county.

Mr. MILLAR. It is.

Mr. RHODES. May I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia in what line it states that it applies only to counties of the first class?

Mr. MILLAR. Lines 1 to 11 on the second page.

Mr. RHODES. Does the gentleman from Philadelphia mean that this condition only exists in the city of Philadelphia.

Mr. MILLAR. That is my understanding.

Mr. RHODES. May I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether that is not a matter for determinotion by the courts and by your local bar association rather than a subject matter for legislation.

Mr. MILLAR. I think not.

Mr. RHODES. May I further ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if the last two lines, that is, lines 9, 10 and 11, would not open up a very dangerous situation in every county in the State.

Mr. MILLAR. If I did I would have made the amendment.

Mr. RHODES. May I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if there is any objection to having an amendment inserted so that this applies specifically to counties of the first class.

Mr. MILLAR. I have no objection but I would rather have the House pass it now and have the amendment inserted in the Senate.

Mr. RHODES. Do I understand the gentleman from Philadelphia, that if we pass this bill, that it will be amended in the Senate so as to specifically apply to counties of the first class?

Mr. MILLAR. I will be glad to undertake that.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, even if it applies to Philadelphia I do not think the members from Philadelphia want to trespass on the prerogatives of the bar association of their own county. The bar associations of the different counties have the right to pass rules regulating the procedure and regulating where the members of the bar shall sit. It seems to me that we are getting a good ways from home when we appear at the Legislature and endeavor to tell the members of the bar, the district attorney or assistant district attorneys where they shall sit.

Now they talk about amending the bill in the Senate. We have had enough experience in the Senate not to have a whole lot of confidence in what they will do over there. They become paniky very often over there. Therefore, I think we ought to act here. It seems to me that this is not the kind of a bill we want to pass in this House

Mr. MILLAR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if the Senate does not agree to insert an amendment to restrict the application of this bill to counties of the first class I am willing to pledge myself to offer a resolution to recall the bill from the Governor and let it die. It seems to me the members of the bar of Philadelphia County are as well qualified as any one else to suggest the proper method for correcting a condition which they think is wrong, and it is the concensus of opinion of the members of the bar in this House from Philadelphia County that this bill should go through and therefore I ask you to vote for it and I will see that it is amended to apply only to counties of the first class.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 584, as follows:

An Act to regulate and determine what weight of coal shall make a ton in all transactions in this Commonwealth and to impose penalties for short weight

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority or the same That two thousand pounds avoirdupois shall make and constitute a legal ton of coal throughout this Commonwealth in all transactions

Section 2 Any person firm or corporation guilty of violating the provisions of section one of this act whereby it is attempted to sell less than two thousand pounds to a ton or a proper proportion thereof to quantities less than a ton upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace or alderman after hearing on complaint made shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding fifty dollars for each and every offence recoverable as like penalties are recoverable in this Commonwealth providing however that a tolerance of forty pounds per ton shall be allowed

Section 3 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor please explain the merits of this bill to the House?

Mr. MANGAN. I will endeavor to do so. To explain the merits of this bill I must go back to 1921 when this bill was first introduced into the House by myself as sponsor, by request. At that time the bill met with a lot of opposition from the coal operators and the retail coal merchants who seemingly did not understand the bill. At the present time they have agreed with the consumer that two weights of coal do not accord with the proper conduct of the merchants business. One merchant will advertise a ton of coal at 2240 lbs. while another will advertise it at 2000 lbs. The consumer, not knowing the difference in the weight will naturally go to the one selling the coal the cheapest and that is the one selling 2000 lbs. So to regulate that the consumer, who has always been the complainant, has gotten together with the merchant as well as the coal operator, and they have agreed upon a uniform tonnage which does not interfere with the consumer, in fact, it gives him the benefit of it because he gets what he pays for. At the present time if he goes down town to the dealers he gets two different prices and he naturally goes to the cheapest, thinking he is getting 2240 lbs., but he does not get that, he gets 2000 lbs. And in other places one city will advertise a short ton and another will advertise a long ton, as I understand. Now we have a good many men who are interested in the coal business who can probably explain this bill far more thoroughly than I can. I feel that the bill is getting after the unscrupulous dealer throughout the State who does not give the real tonnage to the consumer. There is a penalty attached to this bill of fifty dollars on all short weights, and if a man buys a 2000 pound ton under this bill he will get 2000 pounds.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. I am for the consumer of anthracite coal. This means a uniform ton of 2000 lbs. where we get 2240 lbs. or what is commonly kown as a long ton. Now the bill does not provide that the price of coal shall depreciate in proportion to the number of pounds. Therefore the bill is bad and every member of the House that consumes anthracite coal ought to vote against this bill.

Mr. STADTLANDER. I disagree with the preceding speaker in saying this bill is bad. We passed a bill selling oysters by the dozen; we passed a bill here that when you sit in a restaurant you must have the milk served in its original container. This bill is merely a protectory bill. It provides for 2000 lbs. to the ton of coal, and, as Mr. Mangan, from Allegheny, has stated, the unscrupulous dealers go along and they will advertise coal at a certain price and the competitor advertises it at a higher price, and what is the result? The man that is selling 2000 lbs. to the ton can sell his coal considerably cheaper than the man who is honest and above board and sells you 2240 lbs. to the ton. Now, where is it unfair? You are protecting every citizen of this Commonwealth by giving him actually what he intends to buy, 2000 lbs., not 2240 lbs. by one man and 2000 lbs. by another. Therefore I say that the gentleman is wrong when he says it is a bad bill. I say it is a good bill, and when you go to buy coal you get just exactly what you are paying for and that is what you want to do in Pennsylvania. You don't want anybody to put anything over on you and say you are getting 2240 lbs. to the ton when as a matter of fact he is only giving you 2000 pounds. I think it is a good bill.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it appears to me that this bill was not introduced for the benefit of the public. It was introduced for somebody else. At the present time we Philadelphians have a ton of coal which amounts to 2240 lbs. Do we get this 2240 lbs.? Positively not. Now then there comes a bill which describes a ton of coal as 2000 lbs. and what will be the result? You will only get 1500 to 1600 lbs. So that ladies and gentlemen of this House it is time for us to legislate for the public in general and not for the corporations or dealers and I advise you all to protect the consumers and legislate for them and not for the dealers and corporations, and therefore I ask you to vote this bill down.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Dilsheimer.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. With pleasure.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Does the gentleman know there is a penalty provided in this bill?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. We have them, yes sir.

Mr. STADTLANDER. You know if a man sells you less than 2000 lbs. he is subject to this penalty?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Yes, sir.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Do you say that the bill is bad then because it provides for a penalty?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Does the gentleman from Allegheny know we have also a penalty for 2240 lbs.?

Mr. STADTLANDER. If the gentleman will refer me to the act I will be glad to read it.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. We have an act on receiving money by false pretense which means when you sell a ton of coal for 2240 lbs. and it does not weigh it you can arrest the man for receiving the money under false pretense.

Mr. STADTLANDER. And does the gentleman from Philadelphia appreciate that if you buy a ton of coal for 2000 lbs. and it is less than 2000 lbs. that you come under the Act? Do you appreciate that?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. I do not see where this act has any necessity on the statute books.

Mr. WITKIN. May I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Certainly.

Mr. WITKIN. Is it not a fact that this bill permits the sale of less than 2000 lbs. without imposing the penalty? I refer to lines 1, 2 and 3 on page 2, which not only makes it a fact that 2000 lbs. shall constitute a ton but provides for a shortage of 40 lbs. and permits that to be lawful?

Mr. STADTLANDER. I appreciate what the gentleman is driving at. It provides for a shrinkage of 40 lbs.

Mr. WITKIN. Is it not a fact that under the terms of this bill a legal ton would be 1960 lbs.?

Mr. STADTLANDER. That would all depend upon conditions; in drayage it might lose that where they get the coal from the mines and possibly water has been sprayed on it.

Mr. WITKIN. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman. Will he please answer definitely? Is it not a fact that under the terms of this bill if 1960 lbs. are delivered to a consumer that is a compliance with the law?

Mr. STADTLANDER. It is.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. I only want to say one word in regard to this bill before voting for it. We have at the present time standards of weights and measures for almost every commodity. We have a standard of weight for a bushel of onions. We have a standard of weight for a bushel of wheat; we have a standard of weight for almost every commodity that we use but do not have a standard of weight for a ton of coal. I understand and I am reliably informed that Pennsylvania is standing unique in this respect with probably only a few states in the Union that do not have a standard weight fixed by law for a ton of coal. For that reason I think that this bill should pass so that we can have a standard for a ton of coal the same as we have a standard for all other commodities.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

GRANTING PRIVILEGE OF THE HOUSE TO THE HON. RALPH SCHOENER.

Mr. SCHILLING. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House request the Honorable Ralph Schoener to recite before the bar of the House the poem entitled "The Kokomo Railroad".

The SPEAKER. If the House does not abject, the Chair would like to finish bills on final passage before we go into the recess at which time we might take such matters up. However, the Chair will put the motion now.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I always like to hear poetry but tonight is the last night that we can pass a number of these bills and get them to the Senate for final passage over there. Now if they will just defer that until sometime after today I will be very glad to hear it. It seems to me that the House ought to do as much of this work as it possibly can so that the Senate can get these bills because this is the last night we can get them over there to pass in time.

Mr. SCHILLING. If the gentleman from Delaware consents I will agree to that after the third reading bills are passed.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to say a few words with reference to House Bill No. 1640, file folio 6735, which deals with one of the taxes to which attention was directed most forcibly by your tax commission. It is the tax on the personal property of non-resident decedents. Those of you that have been heirs or executors of an estate or lawyers in the settlement of an estate know how great confusion there is upon a question which arises in this way: That if a man dies owning stock in a company that has been incorporated in New York or Massachusetts or New Jersey or any other state, before that stock can be transferred there must be a report made to that other state and the taxes paid there on this personal property. We have regarded it as the most vicious of all the taxes, but unfortunately the habit has arisen whereby most states of the union now assess this kind of tax. Some years ago New York regarded it as so bad that they repealed it entirely, thinking that the other states would follow their example, but they did not follow their example and the result was that New York re-enacted it again. Now we have this course of procedure: That when a man dies no one can tell just exactly what the tax on his estate will be. There may be several taxes laid upon the same kind of personal property. Now last December our tax commission asked the tax commissioners of a number of states to come together and decide whether or not anything might be done with this tax, and as a result we agreed to a recommendation to our several legislatures that an effort should be made to repeal this tax. As the result in Massachusetts this Spring they repealed this tax on personal property of non-resident decedents and in New York, at the session just adjourning, they have passed an act whereby they repealed the tax as against the citizens of those states which reciprocally will repeal it as against New York. This bill that we have before us at the present time is a bill that provides that the tax is repealed as against the estates of citizens of those states that have repealed it against Pennsylvania, which at the present moment would be Massachusetts, New York and Pennsylvania, if we pass this bill, acting in harmony. We beleive that it will result in a very genuine effort toward reforming this very costly and oppressive feature of inheritance taxation, and it is with that point of view that we hope this bill will commend itself to your judgment.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreealy to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, vip:
